My Dear Parish Family:

Today's readings open the door to the early Church and what it must have been like for the apostles to spread the Good News of Jesus to a multitude of people. In the Acts of the Apostles, Luke speaks of the Jews who heard the message of Jesus in the synagogue and believed, but there were others, especially the leaders of the synagogue, who rebuked the apostles. For some of us, the resistance from a few would overshadow those who were converted, but for Paul and Barnabas, they moved on and began their mission to convert the Gentiles (who were pagans).

In the second reading, John's vision incorporates much of what we know as church today. John's revelation speaks of people coming from every nation, race, people and tongue. Does this not fulfill the promise made by God to Abraham, that he would be the father of many nations (Genesis 17:4)? Throughout the centuries, and even today, the Church has built upon this promise, spreading the Good News to all corners of the earth. John continues his dialogue and describes seeing a multitude of people wearing white robes and holding palm branches standing before God...the color white and palm branches signifying victory – Resurrection. The persecuted Christians during the time of the Roman Empire were comforted in hearing John's words. They knew their reward was in Jesus, the Lamb of God. He is their Shepherd and it is Jesus who will care for them. Today, Christians continue to be victims of a vicious genocide because of their belief in Jesus Christ, but like the early Christians, they too will know victory in the arms of the Lamb of God.

We have heard a great deal about the Good Shepherd and how he protects his flock. In John's Gospel Jesus assures us that those who believe "shall never perish." Jesus speaks of His lasting relationship He has with His sheep. Jesus reveals that He and His Father are one and no one is greater...no one can remove the sheep from the Father's hand. We are His sheep; we are His disciples. One of the key words is "relationship." We must come to know Jesus; recognize and hear His voice when He speaks to us.

Paul and Barnabas moved from place to place preaching the truth about Jesus to non-believers. Like the apostles, each of us is called to share the light of Jesus with others; to speak the truth, to share the joy, and explain the mercy of God and His love for all people...in all nations. God's assignment for us may not be as grand as Paul and Barnabas; it may be centered in our own homes helping members who just can't seem to understand, or a coworker or friend who just doesn't believe, or holding out your hand to someone who is seeking to know more about Christ and His Church. What's important is that we recognize and respond to God's request and work diligently to build His Church.

Remember the white garment given to the four adults at their Baptism on Easter Vigil and the white gowns worn by the newly baptized infant, the palm branches given to us on Palm Sunday, and the "Lamb of God litany" we pray just before receiving Eucharist... Jesus is victorious. May we live in His victory all the days of our lives, through our sorrows and joys. He is our Shepherd and we are His sheep.

In Christ,
Anne DeMarco
Pastoral Minister

Ozanam Center – Volunteer Needed

Wanted: Intrepid, computer-literate volunteers to register clients at a food distribution site in East Cleveland, one Saturday per month, 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 pm. Learn the registration app, register clients, and assist with minor computer setup.

Reliable transportation is required. Good customer-facing skills a plus. Text or email Chris Trotta at (216) 408-9691 or cptrotta@yahoo.com.

Thank you from the Rose-Mary Center:

At the beginning of Holy Week, a Representative from the Culture of Life Committee delivered the substantial accumulation of donations from the parish to Rose-Mary Center on Euclid Avenue. They were delighted with the donation and gave a tour.

Most of the children were not present because they attend their own local schools. In some circumstances the children also participate in off-site extra-curricular activities. The tour showed what was available onsite. As you would expect, the physical therapist has a variety of equipment. An occupational therapist and a speech pathologist are also on staff. Although Rose-Mary Center is a Catholic endeavor, children of all faiths reside there. The chapel is used for various services, including Mass and is also where Catholic residents are taught catechism in a manner directed to their specific learning ability.

The children currently live in dormitory-style buildings with a common recreation/dining area and small kitchen for serving meals and preparing snacks adjacent to each hall of bedrooms. There is a small gym and multipurpose room with a play area just outside. The center has a swimming pool onsite that is used for therapy and recreation.

Regular family involvement is the norm. Families are able to bring residents home for visits. Rose-Mary Center involves families in events such as picnics and holiday gatherings.

The home that currently serves children with developmental disabilities and behavioral disorders began in an existing house in 1922 and has grown over the years. What was once a state-of-the-art residence is now outdated and does not adequately meet the current goal of aiming toward reproducing a natural home and family environment. Rose-Mary Center is leaving the building in which they have thrived for 94 years and buying, renovating and/or building seven new community homes.

In the midst of the big step of moving into these new homes, the assistance you provided through your donations is most welcome.

Thank you for your generosity, Holy Rosary Parish.

A Message from Lorenzo Salvagni, Our Music Director:

“He who sings prays twice,” said St. Augustine. Singing in a choir can bring you even closer to God, expand your circle of friends, and improve your health all at once! If you can read music and love to sing, please consider joining one of our choral ensembles. Our Choirs practice on Wednesday or Thursday evenings and perform at the 11:00 a.m. or 8:00 p.m. service every Sunday. If you want to know more, please email me at lsalvagni@gmail.com or simply stop by the choir loft after Mass.

Stitch Ministry

Celebrate Jesus’ first days – between the Annunciation and the Visitation (May 31) by helping to swaddle a baby through Birthright. Since 2012 you have provided more than 175 blankets to help mothers in need. You can knit or crochet a blanket, sew a quilt or make a tied-fleece blanket, or purchase a blanket. Blanket sizes can range from car seat and stroller size to crib size. A selection of knit and crochet patterns, instructions for making a tied-fleece blanket and links to free pattern web sites are available. Contact Patricia Cornacchione at 216-791-7166 or cornacchione@sbcglobal.net for details, or if you want to gather for stitching and fellowship. If you have a blanket ready to give now, you may drop it off in the Church Hall in the Stitch Ministry box. Thank you!

Church of the Gesu – Guest Speaker for Moms

Tuesday, April 26th, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., in McAuley Hall (lower level of the Church), 2470 Miramar Boulevard, University Heights,

Christi Tripodi, mother of nine children and founder of Cornerstone of Hope, a northeast Ohio center for grieving children, teens and adults will present:

If Momma Ain’t Happy – Nobody Happy

(a fun and faith-filled spin on Mother’s Day!)

Christi has appeared on EWTN’s Life on the Rock, Women of Grace and Living Right with Dr. Ray.

Christi’s reflections will encourage us to dig deeper in our relationships and in our journey of faith.

2016 First Steps Program: Continuing Education on Marriage and Divorce during the Holy Year, the Jubilee of Mercy

Attempting to pick up the pieces of one’s life after the tragedy of divorce is an area that can impact one’s relationship with God and the Church. The Tribunal of the Diocese of Cleveland invites you to: learn about the Church’s teaching on marriage, its ministry to the divorced/separated, hear about the annulment process and how to submit a case, and discover a path to healing. In any endeavor the “first step” is often difficult. You are invited to attend the next general meeting on Thursday, May 19, 2016, at St. Noel Parish, Willoughby Hills, at 7:00 p.m. Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process. See the website for testimonials and for more information at www.dioceseofcleveland.org/tribunal.
