My Dear First Communicants,

This short letter is addressed personally to you – Klara, Rosalina, Paul, David, Liam, Sidney and Hannah.

You all look so handsome in your beautiful dresses and sharp looking blazers and ties. Although the grown-ups really like seeing the children they love looking so nice, we don’t make you dress up just for us. These nice clothes remind you that what you are doing on this day is very special and what you are doing is very important.

You have known for a long time that your parents and family love you. Because they love you so much, they have taught you about Jesus and how much He loves you, too. You should also remember that Jesus loves you with or without your nice clothes. In fact, Jesus loves you more than anyone can really explain in words. Jesus loved you before anyone else, even before you were born. Yes, Jesus loved you and wanted to be close to you even before your parents knew you were coming into their family. He had to come up with a way to tell you how much He loved you.

Instead of just using words, Jesus showed all of us how much He loved us by becoming one of us and giving us His Body and Blood in the form of bread and wine. He did this so that He could stay close to you and that you can be closer to Him. Today, as you make your First Holy Communion, you get to be closer to Jesus than you ever have before. I hope you see how AWESOME that is!!

There will probably be lots of cake and lots of pictures and maybe a few gifts for you on this special day. I hope you enjoy them and have lots of fun celebrating, but don’t forget one thing. The best gift you will get today, or any day, is Jesus coming to be with you in Holy Communion.

May God bless you, Hannah, Sidney, Liam, David, Paul, Rosalina and Klara with the grace to live in the joy of His love!

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Holy Rosary Parish congratulates all those receiving First Holy Communion this weekend. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

Congratulations!

“The remuneration of work is not something that can be left to the laws of the marketplace; nor should it be a decision left to the will of the more powerful. It must be determined in accordance with justice and equity; which means that workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner.”

– Mater et Magistra, Pope John XXIII

Don’t miss Newman Campus Ministry’s “Buy Fair Trade for Mother’s Day” Sale Sunday, May 1, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall – a special opportunity to practice charity, solidarity, and a preferential option for the poor.

Today, over 2 billion people live on less than $2 per day, and millions of small-scale producers around the world have been plunged into poverty by international market forces over which they have no control. Pope John Paul II reminds us, “the primary basis of the value of work is man himself,” not the items produced.

But how can we be sure that the farmer has been paid a fair wage? That slave labor and child labor have not contributed to the low prices we enjoy? Unless we know where the coffee, tea, and cocoa come from, we can’t be sure. Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families. By purchasing fairly traded foods and handicrafts, we are making a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that helps lift them out of poverty.

We will have Fair Trade chocolate, coffee & tea. Think ahead to Mother’s Day and purchase from our selection of fairly traded jewelry, zippered bags, and scarves. Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice and Retreat Scholarship Fund.
