Jubilee Year of Mercy – Cleveland Diocese

The Holy Father has called for all to participate in the Jubilee Year of Mercy by making a pilgrimage to their local Holy Doors, and by engaging in works of mercy. There are two doors designated as Holy Doors in the Cleveland Diocese: at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist downtown and Our Lady of Lourdes National Shrine in Euclid. All are welcome to take a personal pilgrimage and visit these two locations. Please see the literature racks for information. Pilgrimage Passports are available online and will be mailed from the diocese in late May. Also, there are many online resources to reflect upon a personal journey during the year, from the Vatican, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the Cleveland Diocese, see www.dioceseofcleveland.org/yearofmercy.

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend, the Church of Cleveland is blessed to have five new priests ordained for service to our diocese. Two of these men, as you know, received part of their formation here at Holy Rosary – Father John Mulhollan, who served here as a deacon this past year, and Father Andrew Hoover, who served as a seminarian intern during the summer of 2014. They, along with their classmates, Father Kevin Klonowski, Father James Kulway, and Father Patrick Schultz, make up the ordination class of 2016. We give thanks to the Most Holy Trinity, whom we celebrate this weekend, as well, for their “yes” to serve and lay down their lives to share in the priesthood of Jesus Christ.

The first part of the Rite of Ordination of priests is the call and presentation of the candidates. It is the Church who asks the bishop to ordain the candidates to the priesthood. After hearing this request, the bishop asks “Have they been found worthy?” The response, typically given by the rector of the seminary, is “after inquiry among the people of God and of those responsible for their formation, I certify that they have been found worthy.” After this, the bishop chooses them for ordination as priests.

So, who are the “people of God” referenced above? Well, it includes all of us at Holy Rosary who assist in the formation of these men entrusted to us during their seminary years. Your support, prayers, encouragement, advice and interaction with them during their time with us, help them to grow to accept the call and invitation God gives them to share in Christ’s priesthood. The job of developing vocations to the priesthood belongs to all of us. We continue to pray that more respond to God’s invitation, as we continue to support those discerning that call.

While we are blessed with these five new priests for our diocese, we are acutely aware that there are still far fewer priests in active ministry today than in years past. There is great hope as the numbers in our diocesan seminary continue to increase. Nevertheless, it is important that we continue to encourage vocations to the priesthood. Do you see this potential gift in your son, your grandson? Are you willing to openly discuss this possibility and support it? That support is best effective when given gently. It’s like planting seeds. Too much water isn’t necessarily good. Besides, it’s really the Holy Spirit that causes that seed and vocation to germinate and grow. The most important thing we can do is to cultivate it and make sure the weeds don’t choke it.

Please don’t be afraid of the question. After all, we are building the Kingdom of God and God will never leave us to do so alone. Let’s give thanks to God for the fruits of our efforts (and of many others) in Fathers John and Andrew, but let’s not stop working to produce more.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and nonparishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th Grade at a Catholic Elementary School, and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program, is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.
