HOLY ROSARY CHURCH
CLEVELAND, OHIO

UPCOMING PARISH EVENTS:

Cleveland, Ohio
Dear Parish Family,

As a country this weekend we celebrate our independence with the 4th of July holiday. We remind ourselves that our freedom comes from God, as the Declaration of Independence correctly states. While God has gifted us with freedom and free will, this freedom also comes with responsibility. Each human person takes responsibility for his or her free actions and decisions. We have the freedom to pursue the good and grow closer to God (our ultimate end and purpose for which we have been created) or we can choose evil and so turn away from God and fall into a slavery to sin.

Our freedom then is not absolute. It is not a freedom to do anything we want. Inasmuch as we are not the result of our own creation, we do not have complete autonomy over our human destiny. That is what makes the Incarnation so special. Jesus Christ, truly God and truly human “emptied himself” to share our human nature to show us how to live in total freedom as a human person. How did He do that? He was always in union with the Father and doing the Father’s will. In this way Jesus was truly free to enter into and manifest the Paschal Mystery and, in doing so, He frees all humanity from our captivity to sin and ushers in salvation for us all who choose to accept Him.

The closer we grow to our Lord, the more we are able to live as He did, doing the will of the Father at all times and therefore truly being free. It is only in this way that we will find happiness for ourselves. All other pursuits for happiness will eventually fall short and leave us wanting.

That is why our religious liberty is so important to us. It is more than just a freedom to worship on Sundays and Holy Days; it is the freedom to live as Christ taught us, as He demonstrated in His own earthly life and mission. It is the freedom to follow God’s law – by loving God and our neighbor. Anything that limits this liberty in any way is an affront to our dignity as human persons created in the image and likeness of God. We must therefore continue to pray for our religious freedom and liberty. There is much at stake. Let us keep this in mind as we celebrate this weekend.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
