Dear Parish Family,

As we continue our reading from Luke’s gospel this week, we encounter the disciples asking Jesus to teach them how to pray. Jesus responds by instructing them to pray the “Our Father.” Now the version in Luke’s gospel is slightly abbreviated from the one in Matthew’s gospel, which is the standard prayer that we have all been taught and what we use in the Church. In substance, though, it provides us the same instruction on prayer.

Prayer first requires that we acknowledge God – who God is and that God is present to us when we pray. Failing to do that reduces our prayers to mere words. It is important for us to realize that our prayers do not change God; rather, our prayers change us. They do so by allowing us to be open to God’s presence with us, that the grace and gifts of the Holy Spirit may be poured forth into our hearts.

We ask for “our daily bread” in our prayer. This has multiple meanings on many levels. If we think of the common use of bread, we know that it is food to sustain us physically. On one basic level, this is something we need and God readily supplies. On a deeper, spiritual level our daily bread is the Word that sustains us – God’s commands and will for our lives. It is the task of discipleship for that particular day, which will differ from one day to the next. Depending on our particular vocations and states in life, the daily bread is what allows us to fulfill that day’s obligations well, whatever they may be. It all begins, however, with prayer that is open to what God wants to reveal to us.

When Jesus further tells the disciples to “ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you,” it is not license to ask for whatever we want. It is an invitation to ask for the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us and guide us to all truth as to how to live as disciples of Christ. That for which we ought to ask, seek and knock is God’s will for us. Remember, “thy will be done” is part of the Our Father, too. We have to look at prayer as a whole and not pick and choose the parts we like.

If we pray to know God’s will for us, God will most certainly reveal it to us in ways appropriate to each of us. That is precisely what Jesus is teaching the disciples when He teaches them how to pray. It is also what Jesus is teaching us. We pray that we may be transformed to know God’s will and then do it each and every day.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

NFP Awareness Week

“Natural Family Planning. Love, Mercy, Life. Opening the Heart of Marriage” is the theme of this year’s Natural Family Planning Awareness Week, July 24th to 30th, a national educational campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to celebrate God’s design for married love and the gift of life and to raise awareness of Natural Family Planning (NFP) methods.

“NFP, as the U.S. Bishops have written, is supportive of Catholic beliefs about married love because it “respects the God-given power to love a new human life into being” (see, U.S. Bishops, Married Love and the Gift of Life). During the Jubilee Year of Mercy, all, including married couples and families, are invited to open their hearts more fully to the unconditional love, mercy and life Christ and the Church offer us.

For more information about NFP, please contact local NFP Teaching Couple and Holy Rosary parishioners Fred and Margaret Karboski at 216-321-4596 or karbo7@yahoo.com.
