My Dear Parish Family:

In my last letter, I recommended that you visit the Liturgical Institutes’ website to investigate the elements of the Catholic Mass:

www.elementsofthecatholicmass.com/episodes/

I urge you to return to this site for more. If the first three episodes whet your appetite, then you will certainly enjoy these next three. The more we learn about the Mass, the better equipped we become to pray it well. Check these out:

Episode 4 – The Church Building
The physical structure in which the Church prays is also referred to as church, but for Catholics the church building is more than just the “skin” over the liturgy. It is the place where prayer happens (the Mass being the greatest most important and complete prayer we offer). The church building is where sacrifices are offered. Each Catholic Church building has been anointed with holy oils to consecrate the space in which the Body of Christ prays. The Holy Rosary church building is now over 108 years old. Reflect for a moment on how many liturgies these holy walls have seen in those 108 years!

Episode 5 – Processions in Mass
A procession is not an event that only occurs once a year on August 15th. Each Mass, even the simplest daily Mass contains four processions. A procession can be defined as “an assembly on the move.” In turn, an assembly is not just a random gathering of people but rather a body of people that have come together with a purpose and a destination in mind. Both those on the altar and the congregation are “on the move” during these four times: 1. Entrance, 2. Gospel, 3. Offertory and 4. Holy Communion. This is important because it reminds us that we are a pilgrim people on our way to heaven.

Episode 6 – Signs and Symbols
When we Catholics pray we incorporate what we can see, hear, taste, touch and smell into our worship. The signs and symbols we use during the Mass are drawn from creation, our human culture and Holy Scripture, both the New and Old Testaments. Listen carefully to the words of the Eucharistic Prayer for references to creation such as “Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall.” Consider also how many times Holy Scripture is quoted or referenced when we pray the Mass.

I truly believe we cannot learn too much about the Mass or love it enough.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Please note that if you lose something, call the Parish Office at 216-421-2995 and we may have it! Items left behind are turned in to the office quite frequently and we would be happy to return an item to its owner.
