God Bless You, Father Joe Previte
Dear Parish Family,

During this month of November we remember the poor souls in purgatory. It is a special time to pray for the dead in the hope that our prayers will assist them to enjoy eternal life with God. Also, this month marks the end of our liturgical year and the close of the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. It is a good time for us to reflect, to give thanks to God for His blessings to us, and to ponder the deeper meaning of the pilgrimage of life we walk each day.

The seven brothers written about in the Book of Maccabees, from which we read this weekend, all underwent great suffering and death for the sake of the Law of God. Even before the coming of Jesus, these holy ones had the view of the resurrection in mind and believed in God’s promises to them. Even the king who ordered their torture marvels at their courage. The same courage is displayed by the martyrs of the early Church and even unto our own day for those who give their lives for the sake of Christ. That courage is a great gift of the Holy Spirit given to those so chosen.

All of us, however, receive that gift of the Holy Spirit that allows us to be courageous witnesses of our faith. By God’s providence, we may not be called to give our lives for our faith, but we are called to courageous expression of it by how we live our lives. That may mean speaking out on behalf of those most vulnerable—the unborn, or the poor, or the elderly – especially when we know others will ridicule us for this or it may cost us in some way. It might mean standing up for rights of those oppressed or taken advantage of by others, even when it would be easier for us to just ignore the situation or do nothing.

The Saints, whom we honor at the beginning of this month, always lived in accord with gospel values. As Jesus reminds us in the beatitudes, we are blessed when we are insulted, persecuted, and have evil spoken against us falsely because we are His disciples. It is at those moments that we are closest to the suffering Christ, who gave His life for us that we may inherit eternal life with Him.

So as we enter into this deeper reflection, let us realize that being Catholic Christians is not just a religion among many that we choose to join. It is a Way of Life we choose to live. It is the Way, the Truth and the Life of Jesus Christ we follow. While we follow as pilgrims on a journey through the life of this earthly world, we, like those who have gone before us, journey in the certain hope of the “life of the world to come.” Let that be our guide and motivation each day and may Mary and all the Saints intercede for us with the grace of God to live it with joy.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
