Angelo Ben Crimi
My Dear Parish Family:

This weekend, our parish is celebrating two Rites of initiation in the RCIA process: the Rite of Acceptance and the Rite of Welcoming.

The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens is for inquirers in the RCIA process who are preparing for their Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Since September, they have been participating in the weekly RCIA sessions, where they have been introduced to and have begun building a relationship with the Persons of the Trinity: God the Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit. Learning about the origin of the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament, how to approach the Bible, and how God chose to communicate with us has opened their eyes and hearts to the possibility of a new life – a life with God at its core.

They are now ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey towards becoming Catholic. At this Rite, they are asked to more fully embrace the Gospel message with the help of God, and are also signed with the Cross to show that they now belong to Christ, the Shepherd of souls. The Rite of Acceptance places these catechumens in a formal relationship with the universal Church. By Church law, the Pope and all bishops are to pray for those who have experienced this Rite.

The Rite of Welcoming is for inquirers who have been previously baptized and are ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. At this Rite, they are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles’ instruction, gather with the worshipping community in prayer and join that community in the love and service of others. They are signed with the Cross as a reminder that they too belong to Christ.

In Luke’s Gospel, we hear Jesus speaking to His disciples telling them that they must follow His example, trusting in His mercy and protection, even when they were facing difficulties. As His disciples in the present day, many temptations will confront us, turmoil and confusion, but it is often in these times of turbulence that we experience the process of purification and transformation of our very souls. Jesus gives us a warning of what the future holds, but concludes by reassuring us that, in perseverance, we will secure our lives.

You and I are already living our faith journey in the Catholic Church. We have experienced difficulties, and will continue to carry crosses, some lighter than others. Our faith will allow us to persevere. We pray this is so for one another. Our catechumens and candidates are entering into a new chapter in their faith journey. Recognizing faith, and what faith can give them, is just the beginning for them. We have many months yet to walk until Easter Vigil – many temptations, struggles and conflicts. As a parish family, we ask for your support and prayers for the catechumens and candidates: that their faith will grow and they persevere as they encounter the crosses of life.

In Christ,
Anne De Marco
Pastoral Minister

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey of conversion to God and what He intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized, or were baptized in another Christian tradition, baptized Catholic and have not been confirmed or received First Eucharist, can become members of the Church, a people on a pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. Sessions are Tuesday evenings from 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. For more information, please contact Father Joseph Previte or Anne DeMarco, at the Parish Office at 216-421-2995. This Week’s Topic: Early Church/Church History.
