LITURGICAL MINISTERS for January 21-22

With Gratitude & Appreciation

We invite you to consider enrolling in Faith Direct today – Visit www.faithdirect.net and use our church code: OH473. Thank you for your continued support of Holy Rosary Parish!
My Dear Parish Family:

Today’s readings offer us an opportunity to stop and search the core of our being, asking ourselves who are we really? We may be a teacher, student, office or factory worker. Perhaps we’re retired or just beginning to choose a vocation or occupation. Some experts say that who we are depends on our genetics; others believe it’s our environment that has a greater influence.

In the first reading God calls Israel as His servant – His worshiper. God chooses the Hebrews for a special mission: to make known the one God to all nations. The Apostle Paul in his letter tells the people of Corinth that they “have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy.” In the Gospel of John, John the Baptist refers to Jesus as the “Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” The Baptist gives witness to the Spirit descending upon Jesus and testifies that He is the “Son of God.”

God has called and has chosen not only the people of Israel, Saint Paul and Saint John the Baptist to give witness, to serve, and to be a light for all nations to know Him as our one, true God. Today God has called these young people of Holy Rosary to receive their final sacrament of initiation: Confirmation. (The word means “strengthening.”) The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that the Sacrament of Confirmation “both confirms baptism and strengthens baptismal grace” (CCC 1289). Through this sacrament, their Catholic Christian identity and bond with the Church is sealed. They will be strengthened to grow in holiness and empowered to give witness to their faith.

Along with their families, you and I as Church must continue to pray for each of these young people as they continue their life’s journey. They are our future. We need – the world needs – men and women, filled with the Spirit’s gift of courage, who will speak the truths of our Catholic Church and make known by their daily love-filled, Christ-centered living that truly he or she is a child of God.

That is who our Confirmandi are and that is who you and I are – children of God. We are teachers, students, parents, aunts and uncles. Yes, genetics and environment no doubt play a role in the formation of our personhood. Ultimately, however, it is God’s call to each and every one of us, and our response to Him that makes us the men and women who live in His Name.

May these Confirmandi never forget this day and the grand gifts they have received through the Holy Spirit. Perhaps you and I can spend some time remembering our own Confirmation day. The same Spirit who touched these young people today, is the same Spirit who came upon the apostles in the upper room on the Feast of Pentecost. It is the same Holy Spirit that strengthened you and I on our special day.

To all who have been sealed with the Holy Spirit on this day, our prayers continue to be with you that you may bear the fruit of the Spirit throughout your lives.

In Christ,

Anne DeMarco
Pastoral Minister
