Thank you for your continued support of Holy Rosary Parish!
My Dear Parish Family,

The scriptures for the 6th Sunday of Ordinary time speak to us about that one thing everybody wants when it comes to a decision point in their life: a choice. To be able to freely choose among options is our prerogative. The ability to choose was incorporated into the design of humanity when God created us with free will. The first reading from Sirach reminds us that if we choose we can keep the commandments. The choice put before us is a weighty one, between life and death; good and evil. Implicit in this gift of choice is the responsibility of living with the consequences of those choices, so we are urged to choose wisely. It would therefore make sense to consider the immense wisdom of the Lord shared in His Commandments before making our choices.

Now the Commandments were given to us to reveal the path that leads to our true happiness. We know it will lead to happiness because it was given to us by the One who knows us better than we know ourselves and loves us better than we love ourselves - our architect and Lord. The Commandments teach us to avoid those things that would enslave us in sin. The law is not temporary nor does it have an expiration date. We hear Jesus confirm this fact as we continue on to the Sermon on the Mount in the Matthew’s Gospel.

Where the law was concerned with the actions of the person subject to the law, in this new teaching Jesus is more concerned with the motives and intentions of our actions. He raises the bar for discipleship beyond “legal compliance” and addresses the matters of the heart. He knows the struggle of “life and death, good and evil” is fought on the battlefield of a person’s heart. He requires us to go deeper.

To obey the commandment to not kill, we must stop the growth of hatred in our hearts before it can blossom into murder. The way to avoid adultery is to stem the tide of lust before it can take root. To keep the marriage sound and intact we must remove the option of an exit strategy before choosing to enter into that covenant. The way to avoid lying is create the habit of being a truth-teller whose yes means yes and no means no without qualifications or excuses.

Love itself is a choice of our own free will to make a gift of ourselves to another. Jesus lays out the requirements of a faith that goes deeper than that of the Pharisees. May we have the grace to choose wisely.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce Karen Algiro
Jim Anderson

Catholic Charities 2017 Annual Appeal

YOU DID IT FOR ME.

This weekend, February 11-12th, will be the in-pew appeal during all Masses throughout the Cleveland Diocese.

We are never far from a neighbor who needs our love – the poor and needy, the hungry and homeless, people who are sick, drug addicts, the unemployed, and others who are marginalized by society. When we serve those who are the “least among us,” we serve Christ.

Catholic Charities 2017 Annual Appeal invites us to consider God’s gracious love for us and, in turn, our love for our neighbors in need. God’s grace allows us to recognize the face of Christ in others and to serve them with love. Please Pray for the Good Work of Catholic Charities and Make a Pledge Today. View stories of inspiration at: www.catholiccommunity.org/2017Appeal.

Your Donation Makes A Difference!

Your generous support of the 2017 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal is an act of mercy that will transform lives. We appreciate your donation and take special care to use it wisely in providing essential programs and services to people in need throughout all eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland. On behalf of the poor and needy of Northeast Ohio, thank you.

Pre-Baptism Session at Holy Rosary

The next Pre-Baptism Session will be held on Saturday, February 18th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We invite anyone expecting their first child, or wishing to have their child baptized to call Tammy Moore at 216-421-2995 to register.

Don’t miss Newman Campus Ministry’s Fair Trade Mardi Gras Sale Sunday February 26, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Over 2 billion people live on less than $2 per day, and millions of small-scale producers around the world have been plunged into poverty by international market forces over which they have no control. Pope John Paul II reminds us, “the primary basis of the value of work is man himself,” not the items he or she produces.

Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to cover their costs and provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families right in their own countries. We invite you to make a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that promises to help lift them out of poverty without the upheaval of migration.

We will have Fair Trade chocolate, coffee and tea, including whole bean coffee as requested! We also have a selection of fairly traded jewelry, zippered bags, and scarves which make wonderful gifts. Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice and Retreat Scholarship Fund.
