Dear Parish Family,

In our gospel this weekend, we continue to read from the Sermon on the Mount, particularly the moral sayings. Jesus offers alternatives to retaliation for wrongs and hatred for enemies. He calls us to “turn the other [cheek]” and to “love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” These seem difficult and perhaps may be seen as a passive approach by our Lord. Of course, that is exactly the opposite of the truth. Jesus clearly and aggressively confronts evil throughout His public ministry. However, He does so in a new and better way. He stands up to it with courage in full knowledge of the truth that the love God is with Him – and that same love of God is with us.

Jesus offers us an alternative to either fight or flight when it comes to facing evil. We combat it by standing firm in our faith and the Truth. That is what turning the other cheek really means. It may appear like acting as some sort of punching bag—whether figuratively or literally—but it states to the aggressor of evil that we have strength beyond violence. That is precisely the contradiction of the Cross!

Our Lord humbly submitted to His suffering and crucifixion out of obedience to the Father and love for us, as the sacrificial victim to end the cycle of violence. His “resistance” was not done through like-kind combativeness nor fearful avoidance, but with the most powerful of all actions through resolute defiance to ways of the world in deference to the ways of God. In this, His is the perfect and holy sacrifice.

As St. Paul reminds us: “the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God.” This hopefully gives us pause in our dealing with violent or confrontational situations. Are we able and willing to stand up in a nonviolent way for the truth of the gospel and risk persecution? Remember the beatitudes: “Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness.” These moral teachings of Jesus flow from this original part of the sermon in Matthew’s gospel.

We all experience firsthand how difficult it to be confronted with evil. It is even more difficult to confront it the way Jesus did – but He wins in the end, even though the world may not see it that way. We win, too, when we follow the model Jesus sets for us. It might not be a victory recognized by worldly standards, but viewed through God’s Wisdom, it rewards us with life eternal with the saints in heaven—and that is perfect!

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Don’t miss Newman Campus Ministry’s Fair Trade Mardi Gras Sale

Sunday February 26, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Over 2 billion people live on less than $2.00 per day, and millions of small-scale producers around the world have been plunged into poverty by international market forces over which they have no control. Pope John Paul II reminds us, “the primary basis of the value of work is man himself,” not the items he or she produces.

Fair Trade products guarantee prices that enable producers to cover their costs and provide a very modest yet decent standard of living for their families right in their own countries. We invite you to make a conscious choice to buy from poor people in a way that promises to help lift them out of poverty without the upheaval of migration.

We will have Fair Trade chocolate, coffee and tea, including whole bean coffee as requested! We also have a selection of fairly traded jewelry, zippered bags, and scarves which make wonderful gifts.

Please be generous! Proceeds benefit Catholic Relief Services and the Newman Campus Ministry Social Justice & Retreat Scholarship Fund.
