Dear Parish Family,

As we enter the second week of Lent, our gospel is of the Transfiguration of Jesus. This event witnessed by Peter, James and John was a grace to them for their support and encouragement. Just prior to this, Jesus had spoken to His disciples of His upcoming passion, crucifixion and death, and ultimate resurrection. This would jolt them and they failed to understand it all. In the Transfiguration, Jesus allows three of them to experience and witness His Glory. The change, of course, was in the disciples, who were given the privilege to see Jesus for who He really is. Jesus is transfigured to reveal His true self, not transformed into something other than what He already is.

The three disciples enter into the mystery and Peter wants to stay there, recognizing how good it is. It is for them a foretaste of heavenly glory and they will need to remember this when the confusion and spiritual turmoil of the crucifixion takes place. It will give them hope when all seems lost – they can remember that Jesus promised to rise from the dead and they experienced what that looks like.

Holy Mother Church places this gospel in the sequence of readings each Lent to give us that same hope. We learned last week that we will be tempted, that following the Lord always will not be an easy path but one we can walk if we allow God to remain with us on that journey. Today we are reminded of the ultimate destination – heaven. We have a purpose for our pilgrimage and a destination to reach. We experience it each time we celebrate the Eucharist, which is our foretaste of heaven.

Like the disciples on Mount Tabor, for us to gain the fruits of the transformation and change this holy season of Lent offers, we also must enter into the mystery. We must allow God to change us and allow us to see who He really is. We must allow God to love us as we are, not for whom we think we ought to be. Each of us is a beloved son or daughter of God, who cherishes us beyond our understanding and wants nothing else but for us to share in the mystery of His life for all eternity.

As we continue our Lenten journey, let us realize the good that God is doing for us, especially in those moments of difficulty. Let the certain hope of our share in the resurrection one day keep us focused on allowing Christ to transform us during this Lent and experience the joy of Easter.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Penitential Rite

For those baptized Christians seeking to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church, this Rite helps them to prepare for the healing sacrament of Reconciliation. On this second Sunday of Lent, the Church celebrates the Penitential Rite. This Rite calls candidate Sarah Vogel to a deeper repentance and a total abandonment to the mercy of the Father who sent His only Son to die for our sins. Our prayers for Sarah, and for ourselves, is that the presence among us of Jesus, who is the sum of the Law and the Prophets, will transfigure all our lives with His redeeming grace, bringing us to conversion – a genuine desire to be holy as He is holy.

Lenten Work of Mercy for Moms and Babies
Since 1975, Womankind has been providing hope and care to thousands of women and families in emotional, financial and medical need in the Greater Cleveland. Their committed and qualified volunteers and staff are on hand to provide confidential, professional and comprehensive care, and to listen without judgment. In support of their mission Holy Rosary’s Culture of Life committee will place boxes by the doors to the church for donations to Womankind. We are asking parishioners to donate any size diapers and baby wipes. The collection continues during Lent, concluding Sunday, April 9. Questions? Contact Mora Meluch at 216-932-9515.

Pray for Those in the Military, Law Enforcement & Firefighters
Please pray for those whose names are posted on the bulletin board at the main church entrance on Mayfield Road.

Dispensation from Lenten Abstinence, Friday, March 17th
Out of pastoral solicitude, Bishop Daniel Thomas has formally dispensed the faithful of the Diocese of Cleveland from the obligation to abstain from meat on the Memorial of St. Patrick, observed this year on Friday, 3/17. Those who choose to partake of meat on that day are encouraged to undertake another penance that day in the form of a corporal or spiritual work of mercy. In this way, a faithful Catholic still keeps the penitential spirit of a Friday in Lent and unites oneself more closely with the suffering Christ and His Church.
