Dear Parish Family,

As we celebrate Pentecost and the conclusion of the Easter Season, we pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to be poured forth into our hearts and increase our awareness of its Presence and sevenfold gifts as we continue our journey of discipleship. Our Lord longed to send us this great gift from the Father upon His Ascension and return to heaven. Jesus understood that the apostles and we would need this Advocate to help us in difficult moments and to open our eyes and hearts to the truth of the Gospel.

It is the Holy Spirit that acts in all of our celebrations to effect the sacraments. We refer to this as the epiclesis or calling down of the Spirit. We see this most readily in the celebration of Mass, when the priest holds his hands over the bread and wine during the Eucharistic Prayer. It is, however, present and part of the celebration for every sacrament. It might be easy to look past this important action, but it is not lost on the Church, nor was it lost for the apostles who used this “laying on of hands” to invoke the power of Holy Spirit.

The reception of the Spirit is not simply a one-time event; rather, the Spirit remains with us and is intensified each time we celebrate the sacraments. There is no limit to the depths of the Spirit we can receive, although there likely is a limit to how much we can actually handle! The Holy Spirit itself knows what is best for us and bestows its gifts to each of us as it wills for the common good of all. Our task is to remain receptive and allow those gifts to become active in our lives.

So, how open to the workings of the Spirit have we been? Do we recognize those “Holy Spirit moments” in our lives? Those times when we suddenly understand something or something becomes clear or we learn something that is of assistance to us. These moments of grace are the times when the Spirit is active. Do we recognize this? The greater our awareness of these small moments of the Spirit’s Presence, the deeper our experience and encounter will be and the more we will be able to accomplish with the Spirit’s lead. We ought not to be afraid of these moments. The Spirit is trying to teach us and nudge us to make its Presence known to us. Hopefully, this increases our trust and faith.

This Pentecost let us pray for an ever increasing awareness of the Spirit in our lives. Let us be fully confident that the Spirit will testify to the Truth for us and may we recognize the gifts we have been given by the Spirit and always be ready to put them into action in our lives.

In the Risen Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
