My Dear Parish Family,

In the week just prior to this, I was blessed to be able to make a short retreat at the Abbey of Genesee, a monastery community of Cistercian monks. While I was there, I not only was able to attend the holy sacrifice of the Mass daily, but I was also able to spend a good deal of time meditating on the mystery we celebrate today, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. As I basked in the glow of the glorious Eucharistic presence of our Lord, I made an observation that I would assist you as enter into this mystery.

My observation is simply this: The crucified Lord Jesus is never far in a physical sense or a theological sense from the Eucharist. Consider that nowhere on this blue planet is the holy sacrifice of the Mass offered where the crucifix (containing the corpus of Christ, not just an intersection of vertical and horizontal beams) is not present on the altar and/or above the altar. This is true whether that altar is in our beloved Holy Rosary Church, on the hood of a jeep in a war zone, on a table in a nursing home or at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome.

There is a very good reason for this requirement. Never shall the sacrifice offered by Jesus on the cross be separated from the fruits of that sacrifice we receive in the Eucharist. This is powerful reminder for the priest who acts “persona Christi” in the person of Christ as he offers the bread and wine of our lives that will be transsubstantiated into the Body and Blood of our God. With the proximity of the crucifix as he elevates the host and then the chalice, we are all reminded of the price Jesus paid, the depth of love expressed in order for us to receive His lasting presence in this “bread that has come down from heaven.”

It is most appropriate then that the name “Eucharist” means thanksgiving for what else could be our response to such great a gift, to so deep of a mystery. This point also highlights the reason for the conflict we hear in today’s Gospel. Many of those would-be followers of Jesus were trying to solve the curious mystery of Jesus’ words “unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you will have not life within you.” The mysteries of our faith, of which the Eucharist is the source and summit are not problems to be solved but mysteries to be embraced and lived with the help of the Holy Spirit.

On this Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ and during each Mass you pray going forward, as the priest enters into the Eucharistic Prayer leading up to the consecration, let your eyes gaze for a moment upon the crucifix to remind you of the holy sacrifice of Christ’s love for us and thus better prepare us to enter more fully into the mystery.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
