Dear Parish Family,

As we officially enter into summer, we have the opportunity to enjoy the long days and outdoor activities. For students, it is time of break from studies and for families a time for vacation and fun. However we spend our summers, it continues to be a time for thanks and praise to God for His many blessings to us.

There is never a break or vacation from being a disciple or from our vocations in life. These remain in all seasons of the year. We should always seize the opportunity to give thanks to the Lord in all we do and to evangelize our faith by how we live our lives each day. We do this, as Jesus tell us in the gospel today, fearing no one.

When we come to realize our immense worth before God who created each of us in His image and likeness, there really is nothing for us to fear in this world, except falling away from God. Do our lives draw us closer to the Lord and His love or do our decisions and actions pull us away from the Divine assistance in our lives?

We know the evil one continues his assault on us in ways that are clever and sometimes seemingly harmless to us. That is the trap Jeremiah speaks of in our first reading this weekend. The evil one would denounce our charity, mercy and fidelity to the Truth of the faith. He knows that the gift of Christ’s victory on the Cross far exceeds our transgressions against God. There is always hope and forgiveness with the Lord. Therefore, there is no reason to be afraid.

And so we confidently profess our faith in freedom and Truth. We also pray for religious liberty during this Fortnight for Freedom which continues through the 4th of July. During this time, we are asked to reflect on the Declaration on Religious Liberty of the Second Vatican Council (Dignitatis Humanae) which states that every “human person has a right to religious freedom.” And that all are “immune from coercion on the part of individuals or of social groups and of any human power… that in matters religious no one is to be forced to act in a manner contrary to his own beliefs.”

In essence, the Council Fathers over 50 years ago were echoing the gospel: “speak in the light…proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid.” We cannot be afraid to live the faith we profess, whether in worship in our church or publically outside of it. There is no break from this, no vacation from it. When we acknowledge Christ before others with the whole of our lives, He in turn acknowledges us to the Father and sends the gift of the Holy Spirit into our hearts.

Let us then have the courage to be faithful always, fearing no one with the firm knowledge that Christ is with us.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
