My Dear Parish Family,

For all of my adult professional life I have earned my living using my “brain” rather than my “back.” I was a pencil pusher or a desk jockey. This is not to demean physical labor but just that I never made my living hoisting any burden or fixed to any yoke. As a result, the invitation of Jesus in today’s Gospel given to those who are weary from labor and burdened with a heavy yoke does not immediately connect with me. We have to dig a little deeper to understand the meaning of this generous invitation by Our Lord.

The Gospel passage begins with a prayer of praise by Jesus addressed to His Father. We are privileged to be a “fly on the wall” as we listen to this most intimate exchange between two persons of the Blessed Trinity that are consubstantial in nature. “No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son.” This prayer of Jesus’ is not for His benefit alone but primarily for the benefit of us who hear it. It is a revelation of who Jesus is in relation to the Father and a revelation of the Father to us, His disciples. How blessed are we who are so privileged to be among those “to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.”

The observant Jewish person who was in Jesus’ first audience was saddled with an impossible burden of trying to keep all 600+ commandments of the Jewish religion. The Pharisees had laid these heavy burdens upon them by establishing this expectation in their teachings about the Law. As a result, the commoner felt yoked to these impossible expectations of compliance. To these folks Jesus says, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me.” Jesus can offer this relief not because the Law is no longer relevant, but rather that, He is the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets. He is everything the Law promised. He is the one to whom the prophets pointed.

Jesus can offer the promise of a light burden and an easy yoke because He has borne the burden of our sins that were catalogued by the Law on His cross. His yoke is easy for us, because He is yoked with us as we “plow” our way to heaven. That is truly good news for all of us who follow Christ, whether we are laborers or merely desk jockeys.

One spot for you and one for Jesus!

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration from Saturday, July 29th through Monday, July 31st in Preparation for the Feast of the Assumption

For more than a century, the parish of Holy Rosary has celebrated the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary with processions, a solemn Mass and a four-day Festival of faith, family, food and fun. We continue this tradition honoring the Blessed Mother who was assumed, body and soul, into heaven. Today, the Feast remains primarily a celebration of faith, and we invite all volunteers and parishioners to pray together in advance, so that we may gladly welcome the many visitors who come to worship and celebrate with us during the four-day Feast. Our time spent with the Blessed Sacrament is a way to deepen our relationship with Christ, to pray for our world, and to ask God for the strength to share our faith joyfully with others.

Adoration begins at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 29th, following the 5:00 p.m. Vigil Mass and concludes on Monday, July 31st, at 5:00 p.m.

A reflection on the spirituality of celebrating the Feast will be presented by Father Joe Previte on Sunday, July 30th, at 9:30 a.m. (between the Sunday Masses). All are welcome to attend.

There will be continuous Adoration (with the exception of scheduled Mass times), and we invite you to spend an hour or more in prayer during this extended Eucharistic devotion. Please stop in when you can and sign-up sheets will be available following Mass if you would like to commit to a specific hour of Adoration. To sign up via phone or email or if you have questions, please call (216) 421-2995, or send an email message to info@holy-rosary.org.
