My Dear Parish Family,

There is an often quoted passage from St. Paul’s Letter to the Romans that is included in today’s readings. “We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.” This is a saying that is easy to embrace when we are enjoying the consolation of God’s presence but quite difficult to embrace when we are being persecuted, or going through a rough patch of life. When he says “all things” St. Paul means all things including the evil things that befall us at the hands of evil acting individuals. Yes, our God can even work those “for the good.” Our God is that great to “those who love God.” Let me provide you with an example of how this works.

We have heard many horrific stories about the Nazi concentration camps during World War II. At Dachau, the guards had a particularly evil intent. So as to remove all hope from the heart of the prisoners they removed all the clergy from the barracks of the lay prisoners. The guards isolated Fathers Wilhelm, Schamoni, Pies and Hornet into cellblock #26. Little did they know that this evil intention to remove hope would be turned to the good of millions in a few short years.

These priests were all part of a growing movement within the church to seek a means by which the horrors of this world war would never be repeated. This movement called men to take up a role of service to the laity of the Church, in particular the poor. Because these priests were incarcerated together in that decrepit cellblock they gave birth to the seeds of the restoration of the permanent deacon. At the conclusion of the war, a pilot program called “Deacon Circle” was launched in Frankfurt in 1950. The great theologian Karl Rahner took the work of these priests and in 1956 drafted the proposal for the full restoration of the Permanent Diaconate. Just seven years later this proposal was brought to a vote at the Vatican Council II. It was accepted by the council on October 30, 1963 and put into effect November 20, 1964.

What men intended for evil, God turned to the good for those who love Him. Dachau was part of the darkest moments in our human history. Out of that darkness came the new light of the restored diaconate. This is just a small example of how God turns evil inside out. To find the greatest and most direct example of God’s method of operation in this manner we need look no further than the cross of Christ.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration from Saturday, July 29th through Monday, July 31st in Preparation for the Feast of the Assumption

For more than a century, the parish of Holy Rosary has celebrated the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary with processions, a solemn Mass and a four day festival of faith, family, food and fun. We continue this tradition honoring the Blessed Mother who was assumed body and soul into heaven. Today, the Feast remains primarily a celebration of faith, and we invite all volunteers and parishioners to pray together in advance so that we may gladly welcome the many visitors who come to worship and celebrate with us during the four-day Feast. Our time spent with the Blessed Sacrament is a way to deepen our relationship with Christ, to pray for our world, and to ask God for the strength to share our faith joyfully with others.

- Adoration begins at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 29th, following the 5:00 p.m. Vigil Mass and concludes on Monday, July 31st at 5:00 p.m. The Rosary will be prayed each hour on the hour during Adoration.

- A Reflection on the Spirituality of Celebrating the Feast will be presented by Father Joe Previte on Sunday, July 30th at 9:45 a.m. (between the Sunday Masses). All are welcome to attend.

There will be continuous Adoration (with the exception of scheduled Mass times) and we invite you to spend an hour or more in prayer during this extended Eucharistic devotion. Please stop in when you can during adoration and join us for morning or evening prayer at the following times:

- Sunday, July 30 at 8:00 a.m. – Morning Prayer in the Church
- Sunday, July 30 at 5:00 p.m. – Evening Prayer
- Monday, July 31 at 9:00 a.m. – Morning Prayer in the Church
- Monday, July 31 at 5:00 p.m. – Solemn Evening Prayer and Benediction, closing 40 Hours.

Preparatory Survey for October 2018 Synod
The Church needs to hear from you. In preparation for the October 2018 synod, a survey has been developed to provide a window to learn from young adults and anyone else interested in the Catholic Church – to listen to them, to be with them, and to help them discover God’s plan for them. Your input is crucial, as we add the voices of the Diocese of Cleveland, to those from around the world to help the Church gain a true understanding of the lives of young adults. This survey is for people of all ages. It is important, easy, and it won’t take long. Your survey results will be in the conversation at the Synod in Rome. This is your opportunity to send your message to Pope Francis to help young adults enter into a more meaningful encounter with Jesus Christ throughout their lives. Take the online survey: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/15synod/.
