My Dear Parish Family:

Just one week ago, in preparation for Our Lady’s Feast of the Assumption, we at Holy Rosary had the opportunity to sit and just be with Jesus in Adoration. As I knelt before our Lord, my thought was on the Transfiguration passage, “he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.” There, on the altar rested this beautiful gold Monstrance – gold like the sun and Jesus, nestled within, white as light.

Today’s Feast of the Transfiguration generates a vivid vision of what lies ahead for you and me. In the first reading, Daniel reveals the images of judgement at the end of time, and the triumph of God’s Kingdom. He speaks of the “one like a Son of Man” who will have dominion overall and; “his kingship shall not be destroyed.”

Saint Peter, in his letter tells us his account of the Transfiguration to confirm that which occurred on, what is believed to be Mt. Tabor, was in fact real and true. He confirms what is written in Matthew’s Gospel, words from God the Father, “This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased (and Matthew includes, “listen to him.”

The word “transfiguration” signifies a change of form or appearance. This is what happened to Jesus in the event of the Transfiguration: His appearance changed and became glorious. God permitted the three apostles to witness what eternal life in heaven is like, but for the purpose of strengthening their faith in anticipation of His Son’s passion and also, for the challenges that they would one day endure.

Today’s readings have given us an expanded account of Jesus’ miraculous transfiguration to strengthen not only the faith of Peter, James and John, but the faith that you and I carry within us. When they heard the voice from heaven speaking to them, the apostles realized the full divinity of Jesus, became afraid and prostrated themselves. Jesus, in His compassion, touched them and said, “Rise and do not be afraid.” Yes, there are and will continue to be times when we are afraid of the twists and turns that derail us on our journey. Some events may be miraculous in our own lives or someone dear to us, others may cause pain and confusion. Whatever comes our way Jesus tells us not to fear, for each one of us is like He, a child of God. At our Baptism we were called to give glory to Christ, to listen and follow Him. And, when our weaknesses take hold, we are called to rise up out of our sinfulness and continue our journey in the light of Christ, and through His grace, abandon our fears and clothe ourselves in complete trust in what we know to be true.

In only nine days we will celebrate another great event (and miracle), the Assumption of Our Lady when she was assumed, body and soul, into the glory of heaven. This too, is a preview of our future with God. God continues to give us opportunities to know His Kingdom, to be reassured that life does not end when we close our eyes to this earthly life. There is so much more. But, for now while we live this journey, let us use those special times to strengthen our faith. When we are given the opportunity to sit before the Lord in Adoration, grab on to it, even if it’s for a few minutes before the Tabernacle before or after Mass. We can never forget that it is through the Holy Spirit, that the white host and the chalice of wine that you witness the priest holding high during the Consecration, become the true presence of the Risen Lord, Jesus Christ. God has given us this miracle to nourish us until we are called to share in the His heavenly banquet for all eternity.

In Christ,
Anne De Marco, Pastoral Minister

Preparatory Survey for October 2018 Synod

The Church needs to hear from you. In preparation for the October 2018 synod, a survey has been developed to provide a window to learn from young adults and anyone else interested in the Catholic Church – to listen to them, to be with them, and to help them discover God’s plan for them. Your input is crucial as we add the voices from the Diocese of Cleveland to those from around the world to help the Church gain a true understanding of the lives of young adults. This survey is for people of all ages. It is important, easy, and it won’t take long. Your survey results will be in the conversation at the Synod in Rome. This is your opportunity to send your message to Pope Francis to help young adults enter into a more meaningful encounter with Jesus Christ throughout their lives. Take the online survey: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/15synod/.
