Annual Missionary Visit at Holy Rosary
This weekend, September 16-17, we welcome a visiting Missionary from the Priests of the Sacred Heart. The Very Reverend Edward Kilianski, SCJ, will preside at all the Masses. The Priests of the Sacred Heart accept the call to serve the Church throughout the world spreading devotion to Jesus’ Sacred Heart and to offer comfort to the poor and needy who rely on their charity and ministries. We thank you in advance for your generosity in supporting these priests who serve the poor in more than 40 countries on five continents including Congo, India, Vietnam, Philippines, Indonesia, and South Africa. There will be a special second collection at all Masses. Thank you.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
If you have not been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or baptized Catholic in need of First Communion and Confirmation, please come and join us on Tuesdays, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in the Holy Rosary Church Hall. For more information, please contact Father Joseph Previte or Anne De Marco at the Holy Rosary Parish Office at (216) 421-2995.

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend, we welcome Father Edward Kilianski, a member of the Priests of the Sacred Heart, to Holy Rosary for the annual Missionary appeal. The Priests of the Sacred Heart currently serve as missionaries in over 40 countries throughout the world, providing humanitarian outreach, spiritual and medical care, education, public health, housing and infrastructure, the formation of priests and more. Father Kilianski will certainly provide you more details about their missionary activities in spreading the love of Christ and the gospel to many places throughout the world. As part of the global church, our call is to assist in spreading the gospel message, so your support of the missions is vital in loving our neighbor as ourselves.

Our scriptures for this weekend speak of forgiveness and mercy. Jesus reminds us that we are to be merciful with others as God is merciful with us. The servant in today’s parable quickly forgets the mercy shown him by his master. His heart is not moved by that experience and encounter and in his anger and vengeance he mistreats one of his fellow servants. It calls us to a deeper awareness of God’s mercy in our lives and a change in heart in how we deal with others.

We are typically generous in responding to the needs of others when natural disasters strike, such as the recent storms we have experienced in our country. We are also generous in responding to the needs of those around the world as we have the opportunity this weekend with our mission appeal. Yet, are we as generous in responding and dealing with others who have hurt us in some way? Do we hold grudges, refuse to forgive, or project our anger onto others? If so, then we still have work to do in experiencing the transforming love and mercy of God.

If we followed Peter’s initial thought, we would all be in pretty sad states – we have probably used up our seven chances with most people and they with us! Jesus offers us something much more and something spiritually healthier for us – unlimited forgiveness. As Pope Francis states “God is never tired of forgiving us.” Let us be grateful for that! We, on the other hand, tend to get tired of forgiving each other. Yes, we have work to do in our spiritual lives. But we are not without hope.

God freely provides us grace to help us get back on track. He offers us mercy and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance so that we can experience the love and mercy Christ offers us without limitation. God is always willing to give us a fresh start, no matter how many times we turn away. Therefore, let us recall this great gift and attribute of God as we deal with one another. Let us forgive from our hearts as Jesus call us to do. Then we will truly be disciples who bring God’s love and mercy to all we meet.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Hope and Healing Beyond Heroin
September is “Recovery Month” in Catholic Charities’ Heroin/Opioid Awareness Campaign. The heroin/opioid crisis affecting our parishes and families can feel overwhelming. This Fall awareness campaign’s monthly focus features successful recovery stories to inspire confidence in seeking help and to build hope in families affected by addiction. This month, break the silence of addiction by realizing recovery is possible, as in this month’s bulletin stories. Consider who in your life might benefit from these stories of hope. For video stories and info on seeking help for a loved one, visit the Catholic Charities “Hope and Healing Beyond Heroin” page at www.ccdocle.org or the Greater Than Heroin initiative at www.greaterthanheroin.com.
