Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate, with great joy as a parish community, the 125th anniversary of Holy Rosary Church. This milestone is a testament to the work of countless faithful over the years who have built and sustained our parish from its humble beginnings to serve the Italian immigrants who settled in this area in the mid-19th century to the vibrant faith community it is today. All of this, of course, is under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the maternal protection of our Blessed Mother.

We welcome our new diocesan shepherd, Bishop Nelson Perez, to preside at our Solemn Mass at 11:00 a.m. this Sunday and celebrate with us. It is an honor and privilege to have him with us so soon after his installation as Bishop of Cleveland. Also, joining us this weekend is our Bishop Emeritus, Bishop Anthony Pilla, baptized at Holy Rosary in 1933. We are grateful for all his support over the years.

We welcome also those who have come back this weekend for this wonderful celebration and those who are with us in prayer but could not be here personally. We are grateful for the continuing support and prayers of so many who have called Holy Rosary home over the years.

In our gospel this weekend, Jesus relates another parable about a vineyard and those who have been given charge of it to produce fruit. In the story, we find that they fail to produce the fruit expected of the vineyard owner. Of course, we realize that God is the vineyard owner and that we are the people to whom the Lord has entrusted the vineyard. It is up to us to produce its fruit by building the Kingdom of God in our midst.

In a way, each parish community is a small vineyard, although always part of the global vineyard of the Church, through which we produce fruit for the Lord. Over the past 125 years, Holy Rosary has produced much fruit for the Kingdom. We celebrate that fact this weekend. However, the harvest is not ours, it is God’s. Our celebration is about how God has blessed us and our willingness to cooperate with grace to produce the fruits of good works and the spread of the gospel in this local community.

While it is right for us to celebrate, we also must remember that we are called to continue to be faithful, joy-filled servants who keep working in the vineyard. We remain pilgrims on the journey to the heavenly kingdom. This milestone celebration reminds us that God will always remain with us throughout the journey, as the Lord has for 125 years.

As we embark on our future, let us be open to the workings of the Holy Spirit in our parish and lives and follow where we are led, placing all of endeavors and prayers under the care and intercession of our patroness, the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
