Dear Parish Family,

The passage we heard today from Matthew’s gospel is contained in the other two synoptic gospels as well. This tells us that this encounter between Jesus and His scheming hypocritical foes is a very important part of the gospel message. Once again, Jesus defies their attempts to ensnare Him and confounds His opponents (and maybe us as well) with the enigmatic phrase, “Then render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” What exactly does that mean?

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia wrote an entire book in which he tries to explain just this passage. The title of the book is “Render unto Caesar: Serving the Nation by Living Our Catholic Beliefs in Political Life.” In this book he takes a deep dive into this very complicated issue.

Here are just a few of my favorite quotes from this book:

1. “This means our faith has social as well as personal implications. And those social implications include the civil dimension of our shared life; in other words the content of our politics.” In my words, this means our faith and politics are distinct but that our faith informs our politics.

2. “Christians in general and Catholics in particular do not, and should not, seek to ‘force’ their religious beliefs on society. But working to form the public conscience is not coercion any more than teaching the difference between poison and a steak is a form of bullying. Actively witnessing to and advancing what we believe to be true about key moral issues in public life is not ‘coercion.’ It’s honesty. And it’s also a duty (emphasis is mine)– not only of faith but of citizenship.”

3. “It’s also why asking Catholics to keep their faith out of public affairs amounts to telling them to be barren; to behave as if they were neutered. Nothing could be more alien to the meaning of baptism. The Christian idea of witness, which comes from the Greek word martyr isn’t limited to a bloody death in the arena for the faith. All Christians have the command to be a martyr in the public arena – to live a life of conscious witness wherever God places them, no matter how insignificant it seems and whether or not they ever see the results.”

This book was published by Doubleday Press in 2008. Our Men’s Group read it several years ago and, as you might have guessed, I highly recommend it.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Priesthood Sunday—October 29, 2017
The Diocesan Vocation Office invites us to PRAY that the Holy Spirit may inspire more men to discern this call of service. On Priesthood Sunday we gratefully reflect on the gift of priesthood for the Church and for those men who have generously responded to this vocation.
INVITE youth and young adults to consider their vocation and baptismal identity. While it’s natural for youth, looking toward their future, to make educational plans that will lead to the career of their choosing, their vocational discernment impacts God’s Kingdom most. For more information about discernment events at the Center for Pastoral Leadership, see CLEpriesthood.org

East Cleveland Community Meals – Parish Help Needed!
On behalf of the Newman Campus Ministry, help is needed from parishioners and students in preparing and serving meals monthly for the East Cleveland Community Center. Please contact Anne DeMarco at the Parish Office at 216-421-2995 or email Julia O’Brien at jao47@case.edu. Thank you.

Are You a Registered Parishioner?
If you have been attending Mass at Holy Rosary but haven’t yet registered, please call the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995. We look forward to officially welcoming you to Holy Rosary!

This Week’s Schedule:

Monday, October 23 || Movie Night: Due to fall break, we will not be having Labre this week. Instead, we will have a movie night, with popcorn, candy, and snacks for days! We’ll be watching the 2015 movie “Risen,” get in touch with me if you’d like to join!

Tuesday, October 24, 6:15 p.m. at the IFC || Lectio Divina Bible Study: We are expecting many of the grad students and young adults from the Theology on Tap community to be joining us this week. There’s never been a better time to give this group a shot! Contact Peter Liao (pll21@case.edu) if you want to join this week!

Thursday, October 26, 6:00 p.m. at Holy Rosary || Newman Night: Pope Francis and Catholic Social Teaching: Megan Wilson-Reitz, who led an excellent session on the Saints for us earlier in the semester, will be here this Thursday to kick off our “Called to Love” series of Newman Night Talks. This Thursday, she’ll be leading us in a discussion on Pope Francis and who he is calling the Church to be in the world. You don’t want to miss this one!

Saturday, October 28 || Feast on the Feast at Baldwin Wallace: This year, the Newman Campus Ministers from the Diocese decided to celebrate Halloween and the Feast of All Saints as one group! With that said, we’ll be making the trip down to Baldwin Wallace Saturday to celebrate at their Newman House. Let us know if you want to join and if you are able to drive!

Coming Up:
November 12th-16th: “Authentic Self” Busy Student Retreat: This is a retreat specifically designed for our students who are unable to take days at a time to go on retreat. Our Busy Student Retreat will focus on the theme of your “Authentic Self,” and in it our students will meet with one of our phenomenal spiritual directors for about one hour, Monday-Thursday. If you’ve never tried spiritual direction, this is a great way to see how fruitful it can be! Sign-up forms will be available this week in the IFC or can be emailed to you upon request. Deadline to sign up will be Friday, November 3rd!
