Catholic Campaign for Human Development

For over 43 million Americans, there is a thin line: between eviction and home, between hunger and health, between unemployment and work, between anxiety and stability. This line is the Poverty Line. For a family of four, that line is $24,257 a year*.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by funding community programs that encourage independence. You are essential to its success. Your generous donations will give those in poverty the support they need to make lasting changes.

Together, we can make a difference in families and communities across the United States. Please donate prayerfully and generously next Sunday on November 19th. Thank you.

My Dear Parish Family,

Way back in 1969 there was a hit song playing on the radio, “Is That All There Is?” sung by Peggy Lee. It is a sad melancholy song in which the artist recalls highlights of her life including falling in love and at the end of each event despairingly asks, “Is that all there is?” The fact that she is asking the question implies that she expects more than what this life can offer. The refrain of the song repeats the despairing conclusion that if the answer is yes, that is all there is then, “If that’s all there is my friends, then let’s keep dancing. Let’s break out the booze and have a ball.”

Our readings from scripture for this 32nd Sunday of Ordinary time remind us that the answer to this haunting question is a resounding NO, this is not all there is! Wisdom, personified in the feminine, is the gift of seeing things as God sees them, to see the meaning of this life in the perspective of eternity. She is readily available to “those who keep vigil” because she is making her rounds providing this gift from God.

“Is that all there is?” St. Paul reminds the Thessalonians that because of the Resurrection of Christ Jesus and our faith in Him, this world is not all there is. There is a reality beyond time and space, where we who believe are destined. We “will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.” Yes, my friends this is the promise that we are destined to enjoy the presence of our God, face to face together with our loved ones (who will precede us) in glory.

The parable of the ten virgins reminds us if we truly believe that this is not all there is, then we have the responsibility of being vigilant and ready to enter the wedding feast. We must keep our torches, the light of Christ given to us at Baptism, burning brightly until He returns. To do that we must trim them with daily prayer, frequent reception of the Eucharist and acts of service and kindness to our sisters and brothers.

This parable ends on a somber note by indicating that not all folks make it into the wedding feast. This is a sad but true consequence of a short-sighted view of life. May we be granted the gifts of Wisdom and Fortitude so as to continue to prepare for the Lord’s return. It just makes sense, because this is not all there is.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

You can participate in “Giving Tuesday” on November 28th

You have heard about Black Friday and Cyber Monday – now you can share your blessings on Tuesday, November 28 – Giving Tuesday. All day around the globe people are asked to contribute to their favorite charities and nonprofits. The Diocese of Cleveland asks you to be part of Northeast Ohio’s Online Day of Catholic Giving: #weGiveCatholic, which allows you to contribute to over 160 Catholic schools, parishes, Catholic Charities programs and sites, ministries and other Catholic nonprofits in Northeast Ohio. Simply use your computer or smartphone on Tuesday, November 28 to access www.weGiveCatholic.org, search the list of participants and donate to your favorites. We invite you to consider supporting Holy Rosary Church. In the spirit of the season, remember to Give Catholic on Giving Tuesday.

This Week’s Schedule:

Monday, November 13  Labre Project: This is a fantastic and transformative ministry to the homeless in which all Case, CIM, and CIA students are welcome to get involved. Spots have started to fill up, so don’t hesitate to sign up to volunteer if you’re interested. If you want to get involved next week or another time further down the road, send an email to Sam Poplar (slp84@case.edu) and she’ll get you the information you need!

Tuesday, November 14, 6:30 p.m. at Holy Rosary  Young Catholic Professionals Executive Speaker Series: YCP is bringing its excellent Executive Speaker Series to Little Italy this month, inviting Gary Pritts, president of Eagle Consulting Partners, to speak! The event will start with an optional Holy Hour at 5:30 p.m., followed by time for networking, food, and drinks at 6:30, with the Keynote beginning at 7:00. Hope you’ll make it!

Thursday, November 16, 6:15 p.m. at Holy Rosary: Closing Dinner for Busy Student Retreat: Instead of Newman Night this Thursday, we will be having a closing dinner and prayer service for our Busy Student Retreat. We also won’t have Newman Night over Thanksgiving week, so we’ll gather back together on November 30!

Friday, November 17, 8:30 p.m.: Game Night: Some of our grad students and area young professionals are organizing a Game Night in the Cleveland Heights area. The exact location is TBD. If you think we had a lot of games at our Newman Game Night, we did. But we’ll have all those and then some on the 17th! No RSVP necessary, but if you want to be sure that you know the location once its decided, let Steve know you’re interested in going!
