My Dear Parish Family:

As we reflect on this week’s Gospel on this Solemnity of Christ the King, it is not by accident that Jesus’ dialogue with His disciples was about the end times. Matthew describes the Son of Man coming in all His glory, accompanied by the angels, and seated on a royal throne. He describes a King who will come and determine our fate. Will we be among the goats or the sheep? Will we be chosen to live in the glory of heaven for all eternity?

Last week’s Gospel Jesus’ message was to use our God-given gifts and talents to serve others. Today, Jesus’ message delves even deeper and clarifies that when we serve the least among us it is Christ Himself who is served. Jesus identifies with those who are the “least” among many. His life was not of wealth or prestige. He came into this world as a poor infant whose parents were refugees searching for a place for their child to be born. An innocent man and He were imprisoned, spit upon and beaten. He was betrayed and abandoned. Jesus understands the sufferings of this generation and those past; He will be among the least for generations to come until He comes again.

What was Jesus asking of His disciples? What is He asking of us today? He is simply telling you and I to be people of mercy, charity, and love. Our King calls us to be a people who opens our hearts to those who are challenged in poverty, suffering from mental or physical illnesses, and spiritually depleted of any sense of God’s love. Whatever the reason, they are unable to sufficiently earn that which is necessary to build a life on their own.

Next weekend, we will begin the season of Advent. Opportunities will be afforded for you to give to struggling families a gift(s) for the “little ones” to open on Christmas Day, or to help the refugee family create a home where they can freely live in peace.

Jesus said that the Son of Man will return seated on a royal throne, but it was His death on a wooden cross and His Resurrection that gave us eternal life. Yes, Jesus Christ is our King who continues to lead us to everlasting life. Saint John XXIII wrote this passage in a letter to his nephew on March 14, 1948: “As I draw near to my seventieth year I see in the clearest light – an anticipation of the light of heaven – the fundamental importance of the command to be charitable in thought, word, and deed.” Never forget the least among us. When we serve them, we serve Christ our King. We pray that one day, we will share with all our brothers and sisters, healed and purified of all our infirmities, the glory of His Kingdom.

In Christ,
Anne De Marco, Pastoral Minister

Angel Tree 2017

For the past few years, it has been our Advent tradition to sponsor an “Angel Tree” for children who come from families who have been challenged by economic difficulties. Working through Catholic Charities, we will continue our custom of helping St. Philip Neri Family Center and their Community Christmas Shoppe.

We are also collaborating with Catholic Charities’ Office of Migration and Refugee Services to help those families and individuals who have resettled in the Cleveland area from troubled nations throughout the world.

Please see the information near our Advent Angel in the sanctuary for how you can help a family in need this year. “…Jesus said, ‘For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me….whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did it for me.’” (Mt. 25: 40) Please pray about how you and your families can bring God’s love and joy to the stranger, a child, mother and father, and recognize them as your brothers and sisters in the name of Jesus Christ. Thank you.

Hope and Healing Beyond Heroin
Let’s talk about it! One of the most difficult struggles for those who have family members using and/or addicted to drugs, especially heroin, is shame and silence. They often have no one to talk about their pain and the heavy burden on their hearts. We can change that together. There is a crisis raging in our state. The heroin epidemic is wreaking havoc on hundreds and thousands of individuals and families across our region. Learn more so that you can be that person others can turn to in their time of need. Go to www.cccdoce.org or www.greaterthanheroin.com. Understanding is greater than this crisis. Together, we are greater than heroin. Each of us can be a source of hope, help and healing to someone in need.
