Dear Parish Family,

This weekend, we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for twelve of our young people and two adults. We are privileged to have Abbot Gary Hoover from the Benedictine Abbey preside and confer the sacrament to them at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. This sacrament seals their Baptism at which time they became children of God. The graces of the sacrament through the intensification of the gifts of the Holy Spirit will allow them to answer God’s call to discipleship more fully. It is the same call that the disciples received. Upon hearing it, they left their nets and followed the Lord.

That call, of course, applies to us all. Each of us is called to holiness in our own particular vocations to believe and live the gospel. How have we responded to this call? Do we put God on hold or send the message to voicemail, waiting for a more convenient time to respond? That’s not what the disciples did. We are told that they “abandoned their nets” and continued to follow the Lord when He called them. That took some courage – a gift of the Holy Spirit – on their part. They were not disappointed in their decision, even though there would certainly be a cost.

We cannot be disappointed in our decision to follow the Lord with the whole of our lives either. However, there are times we might seemingly experience disappointment, especially when life does not go the way that we had hoped or planned. St. Paul reminds the Corinthians and us that following the Lord means that we focus on the Kingdom of God and not on worldly things, whether they are happy or sad. Only a proper focus on our eternal destiny brings our lives into proper perspective.

That destiny reminds us that our lives are all gifts from God, who is Creator of all. Therefore, our lives have a sacredness and dignity given to us by God, which cannot be taken away. Tomorrow, January 22nd, we commemorate the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. We pray for the right to life and for penance for violations against the dignity of the human person through acts of abortion. Our daily Mass at 5:30 p.m. will be celebrated in Giving Thanks to God for the Gift of Human Life. After Mass, we will pray a Rosary for Life. We hope you will be able to join us for Mass and prayer for the unborn, or if you are unable, to pray a Rosary on Monday for the protection of the unborn.

It is important that we also remember in our prayers all those who suffer from abortion, especially those who seek healing. God’s mercy is never exhausted and His compassion knows no limits to those who seek Him. If we wish to follow the Lord, neither can our compassion and mercy be lacking for those who need it most.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Save the Dates! Lenten Retreat at Holy Rosary
Holy Rosary will offer a Lenten retreat on three consecutive Monday evenings:

- February 26
- March 5
- March 12

The diocesan Evangelization Office will present

Joyfully Gifted: What Spiritual Gifts Has God Offered You?

Join us on those 3 evenings for:
- Regularly scheduled Mass at 5:30 p.m. each Monday (in the church)
- Simple soup dinner at 6:00 p.m. (in the church hall)
- Presentation/Discussion from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. (in the church hall)

All are welcome! If you have any questions or would like to help with the soup dinners, please contact the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995.

Holy Rosary 2018 Contribution Envelopes
The 2018 contribution envelopes for registered parishioners have arrived. Please stop down in the church hall after all Masses to pick up your box of envelopes – or call the Parish Office during the week if you would like to pick up your envelopes on a weekday at (216) 421-2995.

Please note that we are no longer mailing contribution envelopes and that a full year of envelopes, including special collections, are included in the box. The new envelopes begin with Sunday, February 4th. If you are interested in online giving instead, please visit www.faithdirect.com and enter our parish code: OH473.

We are grateful for your year-round support of Holy Rosary Parish, the Catholic presence in Little Italy and University Circle.

Week’s Schedule:

Monday, January 22 || Labre Project
This is a fantastic and transformative ministry to the homeless in which all Case, CIM, and CIA students are welcome to get involved. Spots have started to fill up, so don’t hesitate to sign up to volunteer if you’re interested! If you want to get involved next week or another time further down the road, send an email to Sam Poplar (slp84@case.edu) and she’ll get you the information you need!

Tuesday, January 23, 6:15 p.m. at the IFC || Lectio Divina Prayer Group. A group of young professionals, graduate, and undergraduate students who gather to pray with the Scriptures at this time every week. Feel free to drop in whenever you’re free. Contact Peter Liao (pll21@case.edu) if you have any questions!

Thursday, January 25 in Parish Center || Newman Night on the Gifts of the Catholic Church. This Thursday, Mary Kate Glowe, Theology Teacher and Theology on Tap Speaker, will come to speak to us about the great spiritual resources we have to lean on that are unique to us as Catholics, and the ways that these gifts of the Church helped her to grow in faith. This is the first time we’ll have Mary Kate with us, so we’ll hope to see you there! As always, meal starts at 6:15 and the talk will begin at 7:00!

Friday, January 26 at Holy Rosary, 7:00 p.m. || Adoration and Praise and Worship. Newman will be hosting a Holy Hour for Adoration, along with Praise and Worship music led by Michael Cox. This was such a great event when we held it in December, so if you missed it we hope to see you this time!

Other Events Coming Up

Thursday, February 8: Winter Jam Concert. In lieu of Newman Night on this Thursday, February 8, we will be going together to the Winter Jam Concert – a concert of contemporary Christian bands. Ticket prices and other information will be coming soon, so keep a look out!
