My Dear Parish Family,

As the story of the mission of Jesus continues to unfold in Mark’s gospel, one thing is abundantly clear. Jesus is beginning to make a name for himself. He has captured the crowd’s attention by His authoritative teaching in the synagogue and by His mastery over the unclean spirit all done on the Sabbath. This last detail did not escape the notice of the Pharisees, the guardians of the regulations on what could and could not be done on the Sabbath. Jesus is definitely on everyone’s “watch list.”

The curing of Peter’s mother-in-law, in the privacy of his home, also occurs on the Sabbath. She even “waited on them” which technically would be forbidden as well. The rest of the town, still fearing the wrath of the Pharisees, waited until sundown (the conclusion of the Sabbath day) to bring the sick and possessed to door of the house. We are told that “He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.” Jesus gives further evidence that the Kingdom of God is among them.

What comes next is very important. How then does Jesus celebrate this fantastically successful launch of His mission? “Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.” Jesus needed to be refreshed and be united in prayer with His Father at this critical juncture of His mission. Jesus must allow the Father’s will to be heard and carried out.

Simon went looking for Jesus and brought Him the news that His popularity in the town was at a fever pitch and that if He wanted to capitalize on this fervor, He ought to act now. Not surprisingly, Simon’s idea is at odds with what Jesus learned in His time at prayer. Jesus replied, “Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose, have I come.” Once again, Jesus has to refine the disciples understanding of who He is and why He is here. To accumulate fame, influence and popular approval is not the mission of Jesus. It is to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is here and that the love of God will be realized when He, Jesus, will offer Himself as a sacrifice for our salvation and the rise in glory. This good news of who He is and why He has come is too good to keep to Capernaum.

So it should be with us. If we have come to know Jesus as He truly is and we have “abandoned our nets” to follow Him, then we should be eager to share this good news with all we meet. Let people ask what is the reason for your hope, for your joy. The news is too good to keep to ourselves.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Lenten Mission at Holy Rosary

Holy Rosary will offer a three-part Lenten mission on consecutive Monday evenings:

February 26, March 5 & March 12
from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

The Diocesan Office of Evangelization will present

Joyfully Gifted: What Spiritual Gifts Has God Offered You?

Join us on those 3 evenings for:
- Regularly scheduled Mass at 5:30 p.m. each Monday (in the church)
- Simple soup dinner at 6:00 p.m. (in the church hall)
- Presentation/Discussion from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. (in the church hall)

You are welcome to attend the presentation only, but if you are able to arrive earlier, please join us for the soup dinner and Mass. All are welcome!

If you have any questions or would like to help with the soup dinners, please contact the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995.

This Week’s Schedule

Monday, February 5 || Labre Project

While we always need help with Labre, going forward, we are in great need of volunteers to heat the food prior to the team delivering it to the homeless. While we have seen response from some generous students, we still have several weeks upcoming where we do not have a volunteer set to do that. If you are available to help out with this essential part of this ministry, or in any other capacity, send an email to Sam Poplar (slp84@case.edu) and she’ll get you the information you need!

Tuesday, February 6, 6:15 p.m. at the IFC

Lectio Divina Prayer Group

A group of young professionals, graduate, and undergraduate students who gather to pray with the Scriptures at this time every week. Feel free to drop in whenever you’re free. Contact Peter Liao (pll21@case.edu) if you have any questions!

Thursday, February 8 in Parish Center

Newman Game Night

Having originally thought that the Winter Jam Concert was this day, when we found out it was actually Friday, it left us with an open space for Newman Night. By request of our leadership team, this Thursday will be our first Newman Game Night of the Semester! As always, we’ll have plenty of party games. Bring any others you might like to share with the group! This event will start at 6:30 p.m., hope to see you there!

Friday, February 9: 6:00 p.m., Winter Jam Concert

This Friday, we’re going to take a group out to go to the Winter Jam concert, a concert in which Christian Artists from many areas will be performing at the Wolstein Center at Cleveland State University. The price of the concert is $15 a person, and we’ll be meeting at 4:30 p.m. at the IFC to bus downtown together. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and the Concert begins at 7:00 p.m. Email me ASAP if you’d like to join!

Other Events Coming Up

Tuesday, February 13 at John Carroll University

VCP Executive Speaker Series with Bishop Perez

The Cleveland Chapter of the Young Catholic Professionals has invited our new Bishop, Nelson Perez, to be the Speaker for their Executive Speaker Series on Tuesday, February 13th. This event is totally free of charge, and is an excellent opportunity to meet and hear the Bishop speak! If you want to attend this event, send me an email so I can be sure to have a ride arranged for you!
