My Dear Parish Family:

On this first Sunday of Lent the Catholic Church worldwide celebrates the Rite of Election for the catechumens who are seeking the sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist, and Confirmation, and the Rite of Continuing Conversion, asking to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church. For our catechumens and candidates, this week’s readings speak to the core of their hearts. For the rest of us who have lived through many Lenten seasons, it should be the same. We are reminded that God’s kingdom is now…not for future tomorrows, but here and now. Jesus went into the desert for forty days where He was tempted by Satan. Not mentioned in Mark’s Gospel, but noted in Matthew’s and Luke’s Gospels, Jesus fasted during these forty days. We can only imagine His weakened state, and yet, Jesus refuted the temptations placed before Him.

Jesus’ encounter with Satan in the desert is only the beginning of His journey to the final hours of life on the Cross. For the catechumens and candidates, and all Christians, this time of Lent is for us, an opportunity to prepare and reinforce all that we profess to believe as disciples of Christ so we too, can resist the temptations that face us day after day. Those who are preparing to enter the Church are walking this path for the very first time in the Catholic Church, but they are not alone. They are on this great journey with the entire Church alongside them. What must they know to prepare themselves for living in God’s kingdom now and for all eternity? What must you and I be reminded of to reinforce what we often neglect or simply forget about throughout the rest of the year?

Lent is a call to conversion through penance. It is a time to reflect from within our hearts the things that we would like to change about ourselves; what obstacles stand in our way that prevents us from being truly one with God? (holding grudges, learning to forgive, letting go of destructive habits and obsessions). We must experience the sacrament of reconciliation during this time, so we can relieve ourselves of the pain that comes with giving in to the temptations that confront us.

Lent is a time to increase and improve the quality and devotion to prayer. Turn off the TV and any other electronic devices that take up frivolous time and spend it in personal prayer reflecting on the life of Christ and the gifts He has bestowed on us, personally. If possible, try to attend just one Mass (if not more) during the weekday. For the homebound, there are many opportunities offered on EWTN for viewing the Mass, praying the Rosary, etc. Whether in person or throughout the day in class, the market place or at home, build your relationship with Jesus, adore Him, praise Him, and thank Him. Spend time before the Blessed Sacrament and meditate on what He sincerely means to you.

Fasting and Abstinence are not a means of dieting for personal appearances. Fasting and abstinence are about growing closer to God through sacrifice. Sacrifice and almsgiving are about the “other”, not you --- not me, but our brothers and sisters in Christ who are among the most vulnerable. When we sacrifice our time, talents and treasures for another we do it for Christ and His kingdom. The fruits of our actions can turn a time of trial for many into something positive for most.

As we walk this path together, please remember the catechumens and candidates in your prayers and I promise that you all will be included in ours every Tuesday evening during the RCIA sessions. May this journey relieve us of any obstacles that may separate us from God, and bring us closer to His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and our Savior. May God’s strength, His mercy, and His love be known to you all during this Lenten Season.

Anne De Marco
Pastoral Minister

This Week’s Schedule:

After a busy couple of weeks, we’re back to business as usual in Newman! Hope to see you at some of these events!

Monday, February 19 || Labre Project: Thanks to the generous response of our students, we now have someone to prepare the food for the runs every week! We still could always use more hands and smiling faces to run the food to the homeless in the area though. If you’d like to participate, send an email to Sam Poplar (slp84@case.edu) and she’ll get you the information you need!

Tuesday, February 20, 6:15 p.m., in the IFC || Lectio Divina: A growing community of young professionals, graduate, and undergraduate students who gather to pray the Scriptures together every Tuesday. If you’ve been looking to get more deeply into the Scriptures this Lenten Season, or to get involved with a tight-knit Christian community, join us on Tuesdays to do both! Contact Peter Liao at PLL21@case.edu if you have any questions!

Thursday, February 22, 6:15 p.m., in Parish Center || Newman Night – Shaped by God: This Thursday, Barbara Essex, leader of the University Protestant Campus Ministries, will be joining us to lead a Bible Study on Jeremiah 18:1-11, in which God says to Jeremiah that we are like clay in his hands, able to be reshaped even if we are misshapen. This Lenten talk will begin at 7:00 p.m. after the 6:15 p.m. dinner.

Friday, February 23, 7:30 p.m., at Holy Rosary | Newman Holy Hour: As we’ve done the last two months, we’ll be taking the last Friday of the month as an opportunity to spend an hour in adoration alongside our Newman brothers and sisters. We hope you’ll join us for this hour of prayer, before the Blessed Sacrament. Taylor Tripodi, a Christian Artist and Cleveland Native, will be there to lead our worship through song! Stations of the Cross will be beginning at 6:30 at Holy Rosary and leading right up to this event. We encourage you to attend both!

Other Events Coming Up:

Spring Retreat: April 13-14: This Spring, Case and Baldwin-Wallace’s Newman Ministries will be hosting an off-campus retreat in beautiful Villa Maria in Western Pennsylvania. More details will be available in the coming weeks, but mark this down on your calendars now!
