My Dear Parish Family,

It is not uncommon for many of us to forget that each Sunday there are four readings from Scripture during the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. The responsorial psalm that the cantor leads us in singing is most often from the book of Psalms. It is the congregation’s opportunity to proclaim God’s word as a community. It is also our response to the Word we have just heard proclaimed in the first reading. It is an opportunity to participate which we should never allow to slip by us.

On this Sunday, we will pray Psalm 51, one of the classical penitential psalms. As do all of the psalms, this one expresses the desires of the human heart with great emotion and intensity. These are prayers that are meant to be sung. Ps 51 cries out to God for mercy from a heart that is fully aware of its own sinfulness. “Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me.” This plea is made with the confidence of receiving mercy, not because of our merit but because of God’s goodness: “Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense.”

The greatest fear of the person praying this psalm is not the punishment that their sins may incur but the results of how their sin has separated them from God. “Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me.” In complete honesty as we journey down this Lenten path, we should pray the responsorial verse of the psalm we have sung at today’s Mass, “Create a clean heart in me, O God.”

So important is this particular psalm to the heart of our conversion that it is incorporated into the Morning Prayer of the Liturgy of the Hours (also known as the Divine Office) every Friday morning! Every Friday Morning, including Good Friday. If you are looking to find that special prayer to help you finish Lent 2018 on the right note, add Psalm 51 to your daily prayers. If you do, I am confident that the Lord will answer the main petition of this prayer:

“A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me.”

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
