Dear Parish Family,

As we begin Holy Week, we enter into the most sacred time of the Church’s liturgical year. We celebrate our Lord’s entry into Jerusalem on this Palm Sunday. For Jesus, it will be quite a week. Today, those in Jerusalem herald Him as a King. Within five days, they will call for His crucifixion. One of His disciples will betray Him and the rest will scatter after His arrest in the garden. He will appear before religious and secular leaders, who will falsely accuse Him, physically mistreat Him and eventually put Him to death. Yet, the victory is His. This is His hour, the whole purpose why Jesus took on human flesh and lived among us. He did so to redeem us and open for us the path of life eternal.

The liturgical celebrations of Holy Week recall the totality of the Paschal Mystery. Let us enter into them and celebrate well what Christ has done for us. In one week, we will celebrate the joy of Easter, but it will not mean as much if we do not first walk with our Lord through His last supper and crucifixion. There is no Resurrection without the Cross and we all must walk through it just as Jesus did. Our individual crosses may differ, but they are our path to holiness and ultimately to eternal life with God.

Therefore, let us take some time this week to walk with our Lord and truly reflect on all He endured for us. As we recall this, let us also recall how abundantly blessed we are to continue His mission and be His disciples. The Lord will never ask us to carry a cross without providing us the grace to do so fruitfully. Just as Mary was at the foot of the cross, let us follow our Lord this week and allow our entrance into His Paschal Mystery to transform our lives.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

Novena to Divine Mercy and Divine Mercy Sunday

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday and concludes on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8 – Through St. Faustina, our blessed Lord requested that the Sunday after Easter be officially established as the Feast of Mercy: “On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy” (Diary of St. Faustina, 699). The Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist are special fountains of mercy which should be received as a condition for obtaining His promise for the Feast of Mercy. Whoever will recite the Chaplet “will receive great mercy at the hour of death...When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior...Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy. Through the Chaplet, you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will.”

(Diary of St. Faustina, 687, 1541, 1731) Novena booklets are available in the back of the Church.
