My Dear Parish Family,

This digital age in which we now live brings with it a new type of anxiety, namely of connectivity. Many people will have heightened levels of stress if, for example their internet goes out or their cell phone dies or their Wi-Fi ceases to function! A person can feel completely disconnected or isolated. There is something about “being connected” that provides an artificial sense of security; not on our own.

Saul of Tarsus, after his conversion experience is still a highly suspicious character in Jerusalem because of his reputation of persecuting the followers of Jesus Christ. He is a “persona non grata.” He is completely disconnected from the community because of a lack of trust and as a result his enthusiasm could soon wane. But God had other designs for Saul—soon-to-be-Paul. The Holy Spirit inspired Barnabas to “take charge of him and bring him to the apostles.” Saul is now connected, thanks to the inspired intervention of Barnabas. Saul is now a branch on the vine – the vine that is Jesus who Paul will proclaim as Lord like no other.

Once again in John’s Gospel, Jesus uses the first person declaration of I AM to emphasize His identity. “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower.” Jesus’ use of the image of a vine has its roots (no pun intended) in the imagery used for the nation of Israel by the prophet Isaiah. As in last week’s readings, the image of the stone rejected by the builder originally applied to Israel and later to Christ, so it is now with the image of the vine. Jesus is the TRUE vine, the only true source of nourishment and life for the fruit...if they stay connected!

The message is clear and simple: connected we share in the life of the vine Jesus and His Church and bear fruit or separate ourselves from the life of the vine, from our relationship with Jesus and wither, die, be separated and ultimately cast away.

There are no branches, disconnected from the vine that make it. Put another way, there are no lone ranger Christians who go it alone with a solitary “me-and-Jesus” type of faith. This type of connectivity problem is very serious. Keep that in mind the next time your Wi-Fi or the internet goes out.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

First Saturday Devotion and Promises

At Fatima in 1917, Our Blessed Mother requested First Saturday Devotions as reparation for blasphemies and offenses against her Immaculate Heart and for world peace. The devotions include:

1. Receive the Sacrament of Penance within eight days before or after the First Saturday of the Month.
2. Receive Holy Communion on First Saturday.
3. Recite five decades of the Rosary.
4. Meditate for fifteen minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Our Blessed Mother promised to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation those who fulfill her request with the intention of offering reparation.
