Dear Parish Family,

“No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” This line from John’s gospel on this Sixth Sunday of Easter explains our Lord’s love for us – He laid down His life for us on the Cross. He now refers to us as friends if we keep His commandments. This is easy to do as long as we remain in the love God has for us. Our largest challenge is remembering that the initiative is always God’s. God chooses us – you and me. He chooses to love us first and that love demands a response.

That response, however, is not burdensome. God’s grace strengthens us to respond generously to whatever God calls us to do. It is only in serving the Lord with the whole of our lives, laying them down for Him, that we find joy and that joy is complete. Our Lord wishes this fruit for us – a fruit that remains because it envelopes us in the joy of the Lord. Whatever our particular talents and charisms may be, when we allow the Lord to work through us in using these, we find joy and that is the fruit of discipleship.

The measure of discipleship and friendship with Jesus is in how completely we lay down our lives for Him and the Kingdom. Even those with great faith and love for the Lord can still have a slightly divided heart, one still pulled to a degree into temporal or worldly joys or anxieties. If so, this is an invitation to an even deeper spiritual friendship with Jesus. We always strive for complete friendship with the Lord – mind, body, and spirit – so that the love of God directs our every action and not our own desires. For most, this is a lifelong process of spiritual growth. This is not to say that we are not good, faithful disciples. What it does remind us, however, is that all is of God and not from us. Peter acknowledges this in speaking to Cornelius in our reading from Acts. He knows that he is a human being in need of God’s grace to accomplish the works of the Lord.

The apostles had to learn and grow in their own friendship with the Lord after His Ascension. They did so with the power of the Holy Spirit. We can as well. Of course, our model is none other than our Blessed Mother, who we honor today in our annual May Crowing. Let us follow Mary, spouse of the Holy Spirit, in complete love of the Lord with the whole of our lives. The fruit of her love is Jesus. Let us strive to lay down our lives more and more for our friend, Jesus Christ, and in doing so may our joy be complete.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
