Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance
 2018-2019 School Year

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and nonparishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.

Dear Parish Family,

We celebrate Trinity Sunday this weekend. In other words, we celebrate God. You might be tempted to say “well, we do that every Sunday (and every day), right?” Yes, that is true. But on Trinity Sunday, after we have concluded the celebration of the Paschal Mystery at Pentecost, our celebration of God focuses on God as God exists – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Trinity – a bond of Love so strong that Creation burst forth from it. God did not need to create anything or us. God chose to do so, because that is God’s essence. Because we are creatures of that Creator, we simply cannot grasp the full meaning of the mystery. That is oftentimes difficult for us.

We typically do not like not being able to know something. We have a thirst for knowledge and that is a good thing. However, fully comprehending the one God in three divine “persons” (for lack of a better term) is beyond our reach. For some, that causes them to turn away from God, or at least the Christian God, thinking that if it is not explainable, it cannot really exist.

What we really need to realize, however, is that our understanding of God comes from God. We refer to it as Divine Revelation. God reveals to us the Divine Presence and this is done most perfectly in the person of Jesus. It is only through Christ that we know God is Trinity. While we cannot fully comprehend how the Trinity exists, we can experience the Presence of God in our lives.

Even the disciples “doubted” when they worshipped the Lord before His Ascension as we hear in the gospel this weekend. When the Holy Spirit comes upon them, their doubts about God’s Presence dissolve. They boldly proclaim Jesus as Lord and the Gospel message to all. If the Holy Trinity was not dwelling with them, the Church could never have grown to what it has become. It is not a mere human invention. No, Christ founds the Church and the Trinity guides its course each in its own function but always as One.

So, where does all this leave us? Well, it is simply a matter of faith and of trust. Do we have faith that Jesus Christ is real? Do we believe that He really was born as a human person, suffered, died and rose again to die no more? Do we believe that the Holy Spirit dwells within us? Do we believe that the Father loves us unconditionally and is always ready to forgive us? In short, do we really believe in the creed we profess each week? If so, then we believe in the Trinity. If we believe, that is an invitation to live our lives in the image and likeness of God, who is Love. It is an invitation to enter into the mystery of the Trinity, rather than trying to understand it. That leads to deeper holiness and love of God and our neighbor.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
