My Dear Parish Family,

As we resume the Sundays of Ordinary Time our readings today take us back to the beginning – to the Garden of Eden. The first reading picks up the story after the serpent has beguiled Eve disobeying God’s command and convincing Adam to join her. The earlier passage states that as they ate of the fruit, “their eyes were opened.” They “see” that they have been duped. They also see that they have betrayed the trust God had put in them. They realize that their relationship with God has become broken.

Their reaction to this realization is to try to make themselves invisible, that is to hide. (As if there were a place anywhere in the universe that God created that was inaccessible to the vision of God!) What Adam and Eve feel in this moment is captured in a word that has almost vanished from our modern vocabulary – shame. Yes, shame is what overcomes us when our conscience convinces us that we have somehow, in some way, have not been true to what we were created to be. This original shame of our parents is something we share with them by our human nature – Original Sin.

Although Adam and Eve feel the shame, in a familiar human tactic they attempt to deflect the blame. They are in need of forgiveness but they do not ask for it but offer only excuses for their poor behavior. God forgives them anyway. As we prayed in the Psalm, “With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption.” God already has a plan for their redemption and that plan is the offspring of the woman Mary, His only begotten Son, Jesus who will vanquish Satan by taking on our shame, our sin and putting death to death through His Paschal Mystery.

Too often today shame is considered old-fashioned, irrelevant or even damaging to the delicate psyche of one’s self-image. Like Adam and Eve, we are too ready to offer excuses why we behave poorly toward one another. – My dysfunctional family, my economic upbringing or being a victim of discrimination. In our all-out effort to avoid shame, we also, like Adam and Eve may become confused enough to perceive what is evil as good and what is good as evil. This is the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit of which Jesus speaks in the Gospel.

Perhaps shame needs to make a comeback. Let the Holy Spirit speaking through a well-formed conscience be our guide. “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me a sinner.”

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
The Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance

2018-2019 School Year

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and non-parishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. A parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 for details.
