My Dear Parish Family:

There is a very small village in the province of Campobasso, Italy who give honor to their patron saint twice a year: June 24th and August 29th. Surrounded by traditional Italian hymns, the faithful anxiously await for the lifelike statue to exit the Church; some with tear-filled eyes, and all with great devotion, both residents and visitors follow the procession throughout the village streets. As the people process, hymns are sung, the Rosary is prayed, and there are those who just follow recalling in their minds the story of Saint John the Baptist, his life, his mission, and his purpose.

Who was John the Baptist? Scriptures tell us that the Angel Gabriel appeared to both Elizabeth, a cousin to Mary, the mother of Jesus, and Zachariah, a priest in his own right from the order of Abijah, to tell them that they would have a son named John, in fulfillment of God’s will. The Church celebrates his birthdate on June 24th, six months before Christmas. His formative years were spent in the deserts of Judea where he more than likely became familiar with the many monastic communities, among them the Essenes (a strict Jewish sect). He lived a sacrificial life: he ate locusts and wore a camel’s hair garment and a leather belt.

John’s strength was his obedient and faithful commitment to the call of God. He was clearly aware of his life’s mission; he was chosen to be the “forerunner” for the Messiah, and to prepare the people for the coming of the Kingdom. John was to preach repentance and baptize those who sought forgiveness with water. He knew that he was the one to fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah: “The voice of one crying in the wilderness; prepare the way of the Lord – make His path straight. (Mt 3:3 quoting Isaiah 40:3)

John preached and drew great crowds. He spoke the truth to all people, including the religious leaders who came to see. Even in the landscape of his own demise, John was willing to die a martyr for his stand against sin. John was not purposefully trying to stand out as being different. Contrary, when Christ came to him and asked to be baptized, John knew that He was the Messiah; God had spoken this. John also knew that it was his time to step back — to decrease and for Jesus to increase.

The devotees of Saint John the Baptist who will be walking in a procession throughout the village streets. As the people process, hymns are sung, the Rosary is prayed, and there are those who just follow recalling in their minds the story of Saint John the Baptist, his life, his mission, and his purpose.
