My Dear Parish Family,

I once had a job where the responsibilities of my position seemed to at times, be overwhelming. I would begin each day with a long list of “to-dos” but often due to emails, phone calls and other requests, the list seemed to be longer at the end of a full work day than at the beginning! This made it very difficult to be present to anyone I encountered or tried to help. During this period in my professional life, I found a tee shirt while on vacation that expressed my anxiety very accurately. It read “I can only make one person happy each day. Today is not your day. Tomorrow doesn’t look good either.”

Our gospel today seems to put our Lord Jesus in a similar position. Throngs of people are following His every move. They are pressing in on Him from all sides. Everyone “wants a piece” of Jesus. His plate is over full. The faith of Jairus drives him to fight his way to the front and plead with Jesus to come and heal his daughter. Without a word, Jesus responds by accompanying Him, to be present to him and his daughter.

While on the way, another encounter is added to His day – that of the woman with the hemorrhaging. She is desperate for help, but it is not desperation that moves her to touch His cloak, it is faith. Jesus, aware that power has gone out of Him, turns and is fully present to the woman and confirms what she already knows – she has been healed because of her faith. Despite receiving an “email” that the daughter of Jairus has died, Jesus continues on and makes His healing presence known by restoring her to life. Jesus permits only the three disciples and the parents to witness this miracle.

This passage teaches me a simple lesson and confirms another lesson already learned. Clearly, Jesus can make more than one person happy each day. I have a long way to go if I am to reflect His manner of being present to God’s people. Secondly, in the Lord’s final words of today’s gospel, He confirms what I have learned long ago here at Holy Rosary and that is that every religious encounter always seems to end up with a meal – “give her something to eat.”

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance
2018-2019 School Year

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and nonparishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. A parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 5th grade at a Catholic elementary school and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 for details.
