40 Hours of Adoration in Preparation for the Feast of the Assumption at Holy Rosary

We invite you to “save the date” and consider spending at least one hour in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament prior to the Feast. Our time spent with the Blessed Sacrament is a way to deepen our relationship with Christ, to pray for our world, and to ask God for the strength to share our faith joyfully with others.

Adoration begins Thursday, August 9th, following 7:00 a.m. Mass and continues until 11:00 p.m. on Friday, August 10th, concluding with Benediction and Night Prayer. You may sign up for a specific hour of prayer or simply come for Adoration as your schedule permits. The sign-up sheet will be in the church hall following Sunday morning Masses or you may call the Parish Office at 216-421-2995 to commit to a specific hour or if you have any questions.

My Dear Parish Family,

A popular method of entertainment, for some in this digital age is “binge watching” multiple episodes of their favorite television series. Netflix, Hulu and YouTube TV offer a wide variety of genres from which to choose, offering entertainment that is certain to cater to your taste. In the gospels over the next five weeks, we are invited to “binge” on successive passages from the Bread of Life discourse. Beginning this week, and continuing for the following four weeks, we will hear gospels from the sixth chapter of John’s Gospel.

This section of Holy Scripture is at the core of our Catholic identity as a Eucharistic people. It expresses, in no uncertain terms what Jesus would have us know regarding the connection between His sacrificial death and resurrection and the Bread of Life that is the Eucharist.

Today’s passage – the miraculous feeding of the 5,000 with 5 barley loaves and 2 fish – prefigures all that is to follow. This miracle is one of only a few that appears in all four gospels. Jesus first works on the most fundamental needs of the large crowd, that is their need for sustenance. He enlists the participation of the disciples (“Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?”) and the unnamed but well prepared boy in this miracle. By doing so, He forces them (and us) to realize that our own resources are inadequate to meet the needs. It will take a miracle.

He then instructs the crowd to recline – that is to relax, take time to slow down and take in what is going to be a miraculous meal. In a manner indicative of God’s overabundant providence, there is not just enough but more than enough – more than they can take in.

Do you see the similarities of this passage to our Sunday celebration of the Mass? We come together hungry, but ill equipped to satisfy our own hunger. We are invited to “recline,” at the table of God’s Word first and encounter Christ in the proclamation of the readings. Then through the miracle of the consecration, our feeble offerings of bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus. We are invited to a feast to which we have contributed an infinitesimal amount and received back an overabundance. A feast so great we cannot take it all in.

Normally binge watching is not an efficient use of our time, but for this week and the four that follow, I highly recommend doing just that – binge on these passages from the Gospel of John. Take them in and savor them. Reflect on them and allow them to inform your reception of the source and summit of our faith, the Holy Eucharist. I can think of no better way to prepare ourselves for the upcoming Eucharistic Adoration and the Novena leading up to the Feast.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
