My Dear Parish Family,

Last Sunday, the people murmured. This week, they quarreled. In this section of the Bread of Life discourse, Jesus’ words intensify the crowd’s displeasure.

According to Dictionary.com, to quarrel means to differ, be at odds; bicker, squabble, cross swords, lock horns, be at each other’s throats. This crowd was already on edge because Jesus said He is the “bread come down from heaven” and now He lobs this bombshell into the discourse, “the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” With that, the quarreling begins.

Through His miracles and statements, Jesus has already done and said the impossible many times, but this declaration is particularly difficult to accept. Jesus does not attempt to soften the message or qualify its meaning as metaphorical. As a result, His first hearers understood this in a physical literal sense and are deeply troubled. The apostles are just as confused at this point but there is a big difference between these two groups. That is next week’s story.

We, however, hear these words today in light of understanding, from the perspective of our Catholic faith as the biblical core of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. We know, from our vantage point in history, the truth of these words when they are joined with institution of the sacrament at the Last Supper – “Take this all of you and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.” In turn, the meaning of the words at the Last Supper are found in the Passion, death and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus. Taken all together, we believe that Jesus means exactly what He says – He gives us His body to eat and His blood to drink.

Jesus goes on to tell us all the unbelievable benefits for those who eat His body and drink His blood; “have eternal life; I will raise him on the last day; remain in me and I in them; will have life because of me; will live forever.” Wow! It would be an impossibly gracious gift to receive just one of these benefits of following Christ’s command. Do we realize that every time we receive Holy Communion, we lay claim to all of them? If we did realize that, what could possibly keep us away from Mass? On this day, let us be fully aware of these promises of Christ as we receive His REAL presence in the Eucharist. As for me, I am counting on them.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Food and Clothing Donations
Please note that we will again accept clothing donations at Holy Rosary – following the conclusion of the Feast. Volunteers from Holy Rosary are next scheduled to work on Saturday, September 8th. We invite you to offer a few hours of your time several times a year serving those in need in our local community. If you are interested in becoming involved in this ministry or have questions regarding donations, please contact Deacon Bruce at the Parish Office for more information at 216-421-2995.

Pre-Baptism Session to be Offered at Holy Rosary in September
If you are planning the Baptism of your first child and have not yet attended a Baptism Preparation class, we invite you to call Tammy Moore at 216-421-2995 to register for the next session which will be scheduled in September. Date and time will be determined soon.

It is a diocesan requirement that you attend this class once before the Baptism of your first child and this one and a half hour session provides a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the importance of Catholic faith in our lives, the responsibility of Catholic parents and how we hope to share that gift of our faith with our children. If you are pregnant and awaiting the birth of your first child, you are welcome to register for the class also. It is definitely easier to fulfill this requirement before your baby is born. Again, please call the Parish Office for more information and to register.

First Saturday Devotion and Promises
At Fatima in 1917, Our Blessed Mother requested First Saturday Devotions as reparation for blasphemies and offenses against her Immaculate Heart and for world peace. The devotions include:

- Receive the Sacrament of Penance within eight days before or after the First Saturday of the Month.
- Receive Holy Communion on First Saturday.
- Recite five decades of the Rosary.
- Meditate for fifteen minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Our Blessed Mother promised to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation those who fulfill her request with the intention of offering reparation.

We invite you to arrive approximately a half hour early for Mass on the first weekend of each month to pray the Rosary together as a parish community before Mass.

Women’s Ministry
Women’s Ministry invites women of all ages to join us on the First Saturday of each month. We will meet at 8:10 a.m. to pray the Rosary in church, to attend the 8:30 a.m. First Saturday Mass, and then have coffee, tea and breakfast snacks on September 1 at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Center. We will begin a book discussion of an inspirational novel, Joshua by Fr. Joseph Girzone (Chapter 1) and we will also continue making Rosaries during this meeting time. Newcomers are always welcome! Please RSVP to Tammy at 216-421-2995 or tmoore@holyrosoary.org.

2018 First Step Program: Continuing education regarding marriage and divorce in the Catholic Church
Attempting to pick up the pieces of one’s life after the tragedy of divorce is an area that can impact a person’s relationship with God and the Church. One of the significant issues that a person faces is their place in the Church. Does the Church still care about me even though I am divorced? Am I allowed to go to Mass? Can I receive Communion? How can the Church help me heal? If I decide to marry again, what do I have to do?

The Tribunal of the Diocese of Cleveland offers its First Step Program to help individuals deal with these questions in order to renew and/or strengthen their relationship with God and the Church. This program is offered to help everyone, especially those who have experienced divorce, learn more about Catholic teaching regarding marriage, divorce, and remarriage. Representatives from the Ministry to the Divorced Office of the Department for Marriage and Family Ministry will also be present to explain the resources they offer to the divorced.

Everyone is welcome to:

- Deepen knowledge of the Church’s teaching on marriage
- Learn about the Church’s ministry to the divorced/separated in the Diocese
- Hear about the annulment process and how to submit a case
- Discover a path to healing after divorce in order to strengthen and/or renew a relationship with God and the Church

In any endeavor, taking the “first step” is always the most difficult. The First Step Program helps individuals to navigate the path of healing and closure. Please refer to the Tribunal website (www.dioceseofcleveland.org/tribunal) for testimonials about the program from past participants.

The First Step Program will be held on:
Tuesday, September 18, 2018, at St. Ambrose Parish, Brunswick, at 7:00 p.m.

Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process. For more information, check our website: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/tribunal or call the Tribunal: 216-696-6525/800-869-6525, ext. 4000.
