My Dear Parish Family,

As you may know, there is an intentional design in how the Church selects the readings from scripture for each Sunday Mass. The first reading, usually from the Hebrew Scriptures, is selected to foreshadow the same basic message of the Gospel. The psalm is the congregation’s opportunity to respond to what was proclaimed in the first reading. The second reading, usually but not always from the letters of St. Paul, may or may not tie directly to the common theme shared by the Gospel and the first reading. Because of this, oftentimes the homilist will not refer to that reading. This is not to imply that the message is unimportant. The Word of God can never be dismissed out of hand. Such is the case this week.

St. James, the author of this epistle was a pastor/bishop of his own congregation. His short letter that we hear in these few Sundays has a poignant, powerful message. Today, we hear the strict warning of how we should avoid making judgments on outward appearances. Shabby clothes do not make a person a sinner any more than fine clothes and gold rings makes a saint. Thank God for that! The well-dressed and well-heeled do not impress God by their adornments. Neither should they impress us. “Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” So direct is this warning that it would seem that it was born out of a real life experience with St. James and his flock.

Brothers and sisters, when we assemble to give thanksgiving and praise to Our Lord and God we do so as equals. When we walk through the doors of the church, the titles, the social status, the balance in our bank accounts reflected by our attire all drop away. We come together to worship not because we are worthy or entitled to, but because we need to, because we have encountered the living God in Jesus Christ. This is especially true here at Holy Rosary where because of our proximity to the hospitals and universities, we attract people from most every continent each week. May we not become judges with evil designs, but true to our Christian and ethnic identity and be wisely hospitable.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Men’s Ministry

Men of all ages are welcome to attend the next monthly meeting on Saturday, September 15th (the third Saturday of each month). Meet at 8:00 a.m. in church for morning prayer and the Rosary. Then, join us for coffee and discussion in the Parish Center as we plan for the upcoming year.

Holy Rosary Parish School of Religion (PSR) and Sacramental Preparation Program Begins on September 16th

The Holy Rosary Religious and Spiritual Formation Program serving children from three years of age to middle school students preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation begins on Sunday, September 16th. The Parish School of Religion program meets on Sundays from 9:30-11:00 a.m. (between the two morning Masses) and offers a combination of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) protocols for religious and spiritual formation, the Loyola Press and Sofia Press series, supplemented with The Good Shepherd Atrium Program. This method, process and environment for presentation of catechetical material seeks to meet the child’s developmental, religious, and spiritual needs. There is also preparation for the reception of the Sacraments of Penance, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation. The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated on Sunday, January 20th at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Preparation for students in 8th grade or older begins on September 16th at 11:15 a.m., so please register as soon as possible. The preparation your child/children receives at Atrium will serve their personal development throughout life and aid their understanding and participation at Mass. Parental support and involvement is very important as one’s child internalizes the Christian message and lives out Jesus’ mission of incorporation into the Kingdom of God in their hearts, minds and actions and in their participation in His Church on earth. Registration information has been emailed to families who were enrolled last school year. For new families and those who did not receive an email, we invite you to please contact the Parish Office at 216-421-2995 for more information. Or, simply show up on September 16th at 9:30 a.m. and register in person. We look forward to seeing you and your child on September 16th!

Are you interested in the Catholic Faith?
The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Process Begins This Week

We invite you to learn what the Church teaches and to ask any questions you may have about the Catholic faith or to inquire about the process for becoming Catholic. Sessions begin on Tuesday, September 11, so for more information, please contact the Parish Office as soon as possible at (216) 421-2995. If you are baptized Catholic, but were never confirmed, we invite you to also call the office. Adult Confirmation classes will be available later this fall. The journey of faith continues throughout our lives as we accept Christ’s invitation to grow closer to Him each day. We invite you to come and learn more!

Save the Dates: Theology of the Body Series

Thursdays from September 27th to November 1
A six-part series from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. each Thursday.

September 27: Introduction & Overview (Steve Eyerman)
October 4: Original Man (Andrew Kustec)
October 11: Historical Man (Jen Ricard)
October 18: Eschatological Man (Fr. Pat Schultz)
October 25: Vocation, Especially Sacraments of Matrimony and Holy Orders (Jen Ricard and Fr. Mike McCandless)
November 1: Current Issues (Fr. Pat Schultz and Andrew Kustec)

The Theology of the Body is derived from 129 Wednesday audiences delivered by St. John Paul II between 1979 and 1984 encouraging true reverence for the gift of our sexuality. His reflections are based on Scripture and emphasize the dignity of the human person and how all vocations are called to live and love in the image of God.

Pre-Baptism Session to be Offered at Holy Rosary in September

If you are planning the Baptism of your first child and have not yet attended a Baptism preparation class, we invite you to call Tammy Moore at 216-421-2995 to register for the next session which will be scheduled in September. Date and time will be determined soon.

It is a diocesan requirement that you attend this class once before the Baptism of your first child and this one and a half hour session provides a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the importance of Catholic faith in our lives, the responsibility of Catholic parents and how we hope to share that gift of our faith with our children. If you are pregnant and awaiting the birth of your first child, you are welcome to register for the class, also. It is definitely easier to fulfill this requirement before your baby is born. Again, please call the Parish Office for more information and to register.

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

If you have been attending Mass at Holy Rosary but haven’t yet registered, we invite you to please call the Parish Office at (216) 421-2995. We look forward to welcoming you to Holy Rosary!

Natural Family Planning Sessions at Holy Rosary

Free, total, faithful, fruitful: How married love images the Trinity. Learn more about this at a class in Natural Family Planning. Classes starting in September at Holy Rosary in Cleveland: September 23, October 21, and November 18 at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. Online classes always available. To register or for more information, please visit online at neo-nfp.com.

This Week’s Schedule:

Thursday, September 13, 6:15 p.m. in the Parish Center ||
Newman Night: Through the Eyes of Faith: The Other
Where last week we discussed the subject of ourselves – the human person – and what Christ has made us, this week we’re going to be talking about how Christ has called us to see him in others, specifically the poor, the immigrant, the refugee, and the prisoner. Anne Monnin, one of the Resident Ministers at John Carroll University, will be leading our discussion this week!

FYSH Starts Today!
Our famous small group ministry program for our First Year students will be starting this week, with our first group meeting today! Know that you are in our prayers. If you signed up and don’t recall getting any information, please email our student FYSH Coordinator, Aaron Wise, at asw80@case.edu.
