Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate Priesthood Sunday, a day to give thanks to God for calling ordained priests to service within the Church. As our reading from Hebrews states, “no one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God.” Even Jesus Himself serves as High Priest in obedience to the Father and not for His own glory. Each ordained priest in the Church actually shares in Christ’s Priesthood. Every priest acts in persona Christi Capitae and in nomine ecclesiae (in the person of Christ the Head and in the name of the whole Church).

In this way, the priest offers sacrifice to God (the bread and wine at Mass) from which we receive the Eucharist (the Lord’s Body and Blood) which atones for sins for both the priest and laity. The priest is also a member of the faithful, who serves the rest of the community and leads them in prayer.

We have the privilege to have a seminarian from St. Mary Seminary with us this weekend to tell of his vocation story and continuing discernment and preparation to serve the Church as a priest. We all have a responsibility to support and pray for a continued increase in vocations to priesthood and consecrated religious life. We do this best by living out our vocations to their fullest potential. For those in married life, maintaining a nurturing, prayerful and loving family helps promote vocations by the witness that family offers to others. For those already in ordained ministry and consecrated life, they promote vocations through humble service and perseverance despite obstacles and difficulties they encounter when bringing the Presence of Christ to others.

In the gospel today, Bartimaeus hears the words: “Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.” Bartimaeus wants to see. That is discernment – to see what something really is. How is Jesus calling me to faithfulness and discipleship? More importantly, how do I respond? Upon healing him, Jesus tells Bartimaeus to go his way, but he immediately chooses to follow Jesus on the way after receiving his sight. He sees clearly and knows what he must do. What a great story of conversion and discipleship.

That is the challenge for us as well. As we call out to God in prayer and petition, we hopefully realize that Jesus is calling us, too. Do we have the sight to see where He is asking us to follow and, more importantly, are we willing to proceed on the way? For Jesus, the next stop on the journey is Jerusalem, where He will endure the passion, crucifixion and ultimately the resurrection. There are no shortcuts in the path. Jesus must continue to walk the way and proceed through each step. So, too, must we.

Yes, our call is to become disciples as well, who follow the Lord with the whole of our lives at each moment. Our task is to remain on the way despite the obstacles and diversions that we may encounter to take us off track. Left to ourselves, the road becomes difficult to travel. However, we have the grace of the Holy Spirit to lead and guide us and keep us moving forward.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
