My Dear Parish Family,

As is often the case on the campus of a university, young couples from very different faith backgrounds come together, fall in love and want to be married. Such was the case for a young couple I prepared for marriage a little while ago. She was Roman Catholic and he was a devout Jew. Once the preparation was completed, the groom made a very specific request and it was that The Shema be included as one of the readings.

What is The Shema? It is the one verse from the Hebrew scriptures that is foundational, at the very core of the faith of every devout Jew. It is “Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!” (Deuteronomy 6:4) The word Shema means “Hear O Israel.” The opening words of this verse were enough to bring the entire passage to mind. In the same way saying “Oh, say can you see…” to an American would bring to mind our entire national anthem, so would the Shema affect a Jew.

An observant, devout Jew at the time of Jesus and continuing to today will repeat these verses in their morning and evening prayers. They instructed their children daily in this truth. A copy of these verses and three other foundational verses are placed in a leather box called a phylactery and strapped to the man’s arm and around his head. The symbolism is to keep God’s Word always on my mind and in my heart. The Shema is the connecting verse from our first reading to the Gospel.

The encounter of Jesus with the scribe in today’s gospel is unlike most others with the Jewish leaders. This scribe is authentic in his desire to know God and displays this understanding in his knowledgeable response to Jesus. Jesus recognizes that this scribe “gets it” and he has, to the best of his ability followed the pointers of God’s word that lead him to Our Lord. He tells him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” Indeed, the usher of the Kingdom of God is standing right in front of him. May God’s Word as we hear it, meditate on it and observe it lead us to THE Word of God, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
