Dear Parish Family,

Perhaps you have heard the saying “God is never outdone in generosity.” Even if that is new to you, the saying is correct. We could read story after story in the Old Testament and find numerous examples of this. We read one such story today in the widow of Zarephath. God provides for her needs, as well as for her son and the prophet Elijah. In the gospel today, Jesus observes and comments on the “widow’s mite” as she contributes “her whole livelihood.” These two widows remind us that God does indeed provide for all our needs and that His generosity is unmatched.

As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving in less than two weeks, this is a good reminder to us all. How grateful are we for God’s Providence to us? Does that gratitude reflect how we live each day and the decisions we make? Are we willing to trust completely and totally in God’s generosity and care for us? There are times when that is not easy, but that is exactly what both widows in our scriptures today do in their lives. God cares for them. God provides for them. God will also care for and provide for us as well. We simply need to trust and know that He will do so.

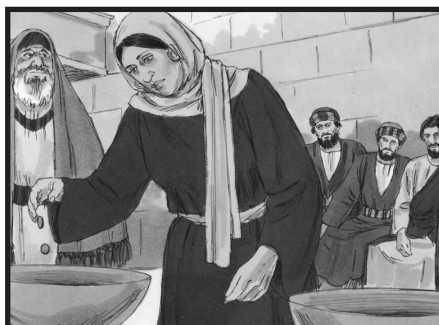

No matter what our needs may be – material, spiritual, physical, emotional – God knows them before we do and blesses us to meet them. Sometimes, however, we fail to recognize this reality. Perhaps what God provides does not fit into what we want, even though it does meet what we need. When those situations arise, we need to reflect on these widows of today’s scriptures, the saints, especially the martyrs, and those models of humility in our lives who trust totally in God’s generosity.

Our secular world will soon be enticing us with many advertisements about things we supposedly need for Christmas claiming: These will make us happy! They might for a time and they may be useful and provide a positive benefit for our lives. Nevertheless, our ultimate happiness lies in knowing God’s infinite, unconditional and generous love for us. The widows got it! St. Teresa of Calcutta got it! St. Maximilian Kolbe who willingly became a martyr during World War II got it! Saints Paul VI and John Paul II got it! With God’s grace, we hope to figure it out as well.

The person who understood this best is, of course, our Blessed Mother. She is our best model of perfect humility and total trust in the Lord. Even though she endured sorrows in her earthly life, God always protected and provided for her. Her yes to God was unwavering. She now enjoys eternal happiness as Queen of Heaven and Earth!

Let us then follow the example of Mary and the widows of our scriptures today, and place all our hopes in the Lord, for “God is never outdone in generosity.”

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
