Dear Parish Family,

We come to the final week of the Year of Grace 2018 as we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This title speaks volumes to us about what this celebration is all about and who exactly we understand Jesus to be for us. We also celebrate this just after Thanksgiving Day in our country. Are we then grateful for the Lord and His gift of life to us?

In the Gospel Jesus states, “I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” Do we listen to the voice of Jesus and live the truth each day? The truth of course is what we profess each week in our creed. It is our belief that God has created all that exists and that God saves us through the actions of Christ. This truth shapes the entirety of our lives and allows us to be intentional disciples of Jesus to manifest His Kingdom.

The people of Israel longed for an earthly king to lead them. This was never really God’s intention for them when calling them forth and leading them out of Egypt. In their time, their kingdoms came and eventually fell, because they served themselves and not God’s law. In becoming human, Jesus ushers in the true Kingdom; coming down from heaven He humbles Himself and becomes human, forever wedding the two natures of humanity and divinity in a mystical bond. This is our true citizenship, this is the Kingdom to which we already belong and in which we hope to dwell for eternity.

Throughout the Gospels, especially in Mark, Jesus is quick to downplay His miracles for fear that the people would carry Him off and declare Him an earthly king. This is not the reason why He came to earth. True kingship for Christ is found in service and submission, not in earthly glory and survival. The Lord served us and all humanity by dying for us on the Cross, freeing us from our slavery to sin. He submitted to the will of the Father who sent Him. As disciples who follow the Lord, we are called to do the same.

Is the Kingdom of God in the forefront of our minds? Does serving the Kingdom of God drive all of our actions and decisions? This is the challenge for us. It is easy to fall into the desire to build earthly kingdoms for ourselves, even falsely believing that they serve God. Our longing for survival can even lead us away from authentic discipleship of service to the true Kingdom through submission and abandonment to God’s will, done totally out of love and with a humble heart. Even if we fail in this regard, and we know that we do, we are not without hope. God’s mercy endures forever and, as Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI reminds us, today’s celebration of Christ the King is “a feast of those who know that they are in the hands of the one who writes straight on crooked lines.”

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
