Dear Parish Family,

We welcome Bishop Roger Gries to Holy Rosary this weekend as he administers the Sacrament of Confirmation to six of our young people at the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday. We continue to pray for these candidates and their families as they complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. As the gifts of the Holy Spirit pour forth onto them in a more intense way, they begin a new path of discipleship to enliven those gifts in their lives. As a parish community, we continue to support them with our prayers and encouragement to live the faith boldly and proudly.

This weekend we read the gospel story of the wedding at Cana, which tells us the first sign performed by Jesus in His public ministry. Because of this first sign, “his disciples began to believe in him.” It was a start—a new beginning that would change them and the world forever. Over the next few years, the disciples would journey with Jesus, witness Him cure the sick, raise the dead, and feed thousands with seemingly nothing. They would hear Him preach and notice the multitudes He would attract to hear His words. This weekend is also a start—a new beginning for our Confirmandi in their lives.

In Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians, we hear that to “each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” While those manifestations or gifts vary among us, we each receive them in some way to build up the body of Christ, which is the Church. That is how the Church mirrors the Trinity—working in unity with different functions to manifest the will of God and build the Kingdom. The challenge for us is to be open to the gifts of the Spirit and activate them in our lives. Like the disciples, we too, must not only begin to believe but allow that faith to fully mature as the gifts of the Spirit develop within us.

As we move beyond the Christmas season, how strong is our belief in God’s grace and work of the Spirit within us? Perhaps we are only just beginning as well, or maybe we have returned to the Church after some time away. Please realize, there is no wrong place to be on this continuum at any point in time. What is important is that we continue to move in the direction of an ever-deeper faith allowing the gifts of the Spirit to be active in our lives. The one thing to guard against is a move backwards against the workings of the Spirit, believing that our merely human efforts are sufficient. Without the Spirit, we cannot succeed.

As we pray for our Confirmandi this weekend, let us pray also for all in the Church, that we may grow in holiness and grace and deepen our belief and discipleship in the person of Jesus. We place all prayers through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, spouse of the Holy Spirit.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte
