Dear Parish Family,

On this Third Sunday of Ordinary Time we begin this liturgical year’s telling of the words, actions and miracles of Jesus according to St. Luke. Today’s gospel is the opening of St. Luke’s gospel in which we hear his heartfelt greeting to “most excellent Theophilus.” Like all excellent works of literature, the opening lines set the stage for the greatest story ever told that is to follow.

The history of the story of salvation is heard in our first reading from Nehemiah. The priest-scribe Ezra takes charge of proclaiming the book of the law (the Hebrew Scriptures, the Torah or what we know as the first five books of the bible) to the entirety of the people of Israel. This is the defining moment in what is known as the period or restoration, the time when Israel had just returned from exile in Babylon. It came at this critical time when Israel was in danger of losing their cultural and faith identity; a time when they almost faded into the Hellenistic culture of their day and become an indistinguishable people. God’s word restores them to their identity. The power of God’s word has its effect on them as they fall on their faces and, as one cry, “Amen, Amen.” Would that God’s word proclaimed at every Mass have that same effect on us!

In the gospel Jesus is making the tour of synagogues where He begins the proclamation of the coming of the Kingdom. When He comes to His home town of Nazareth He proclaims the one section of God’s word of particular importance to this group at this time:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.”

Few sections of the scriptures would have been more full of messianic hope for these Hebrews in attendance than these words. With expectations at this high level, Jesus then delivers the unexpected but critical message, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” No more waiting. I am the WORD that is the fulfillment of God’s word. Look no further, I AM He.

What a way to begin this story of Jesus. Stay tuned for further developments.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

The 2019 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal kicked off last week when almost 100,000 households received a letter from Bishop Perez seeking support for the Annual Appeal and asking each of us “What does it mean to walk in faith and give in joy?” Because of the enduring generosity of donors, Catholic Charities is able to continue to show Christ’s mercy to people who may otherwise be forgotten or discarded. Due to the increasing number of those in need of assistance, the Appeal Goal for 2019 is $13.5 million; an increase of $1 million dollars. Together let us extend the hand of mercy to others. The in-pew parish appeal will be the weekend of February 9-10th.
