Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate the World Day for Consecrated Life, recognizing those men and women who have consecrated themselves to the Lord in service to the Church. There are actually many different forms of consecrated life within the Church. We think most often of religious sisters and brothers and they certainly make up the majority, but there are other forms of living out the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. These include those in the Eremitic life (hermits), consecrated virgins and widows, and members of secular institutes. Each of the forms follow their particular constitutions in living out the evangelical counsels.

There are over 40 different religious orders (both men and women) who have some presence in the Diocese of Cleveland. We are grateful for their presence and ministry. They are, however, aging and not necessarily increasing in number. In a recently released study, of the over 500 religious superiors in the United States who participated, 80 percent indicated that they had no one make perpetual vows in 2018. There were 13 percent who indicated that they had one person make perpetual vows in 2018; and only 7 percent indicated that they had two or more do so.

Those who have a few more years behind us, may remember the religious sisters and brothers who taught us in grade school or high school or prepared us for First Communion or Confirmation as we grew up. Holy Rosary has been blessed by the presence of many religious orders throughout its long history, including the Scalabrini Fathers who founded the parish in 1892, and most recently the Congregation of St. Joseph who staffed the parish in the 1970s and 1980s. The Religious Teachers Filippini and Sisters of Notre Dame have also served here in various capacities.

As the Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church into this third millennium, let us continue our efforts to encourage and pray for those who may have a calling to a religious vocation, whether to priesthood or consecrated life. Let us also pray in gratitude for those currently in consecrated life and for their continued support in fulfilling God’s call.

Prayer for Consecrated Persons

God our Father, we thank You for calling men and women to serve in Your Son’s Kingdom as sisters, brothers, religious priests, consecrated virgins, and hermits, as well as members of Secular Institutes. Renew their knowledge and love of You, and send Your Holy Spirit to help them respond generously and courageously to Your will. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

In Christ,
Fr. Joe Previte

The 2019 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal will take place next weekend in our parish, February 9th-10th. Please refer to the insert in this week’s bulletin which includes our parish’s goal and an overview of the importance of Catholic Charities in our communities.
