My Dear Parish Family,

One way of meditating on the scriptures is to imagine yourself as though you were one of the persons present in the scene. The following short meditation is written in the first person of Simon. It is a personal meditation and is not necessarily the “Bible truth,” but I think it may be fruitful.

“That was a grueling night and not at all productive. Andrew and I worked so hard all night but we caught nothing. Many more nights like that and I might have to give up this fishing. Okay, Andrew lets go in and wash out our nets.” As they approach the shore, Simon makes an observation.

“Andrew, isn’t that Jesus, the one you said was the Messiah? It looks like He is teaching the crowd. Look, He is motioning to us to come to Him. What is that, Master? Yes, You may certainly use our boat.”

“I don’t know about you, Andrew, but I never heard anyone – Pharisee, Sadducee or priest – speak like this guy. What is that, Lord? You want me to put out into deep water and fish again?”

Thinking to himself, Simon reasons, “Don’t You think I know my trade? I’ve been fishing these waters long before You arrived on the scene. Yet, it is hard to refuse Him anything when He looks at you like He’s looking at me now.”

“Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at Your command I will lower the nets.” Then to his weary crew, “Don’t hate me but just trust me, men. We’re going back out.”

Later, “This is a great haul of fish as I have never seen. Clearly Jesus caused this to happen. How, I don’t know, but I cannot believe all this fish! Could it be that Jesus is who Andrew claims He is, the Messiah? If He is indeed the Messiah, then depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.”

“I would never have gone into the deep water unless Jesus had told me to, yet I have never had a catch like that! I wonder what He will ask of me next? I wonder what He meant by saying that I will be ‘the fisher of men?’ Right now I don’t know and I really don’t care. The rest of the crew can have the nets and boats. As for me, I’m following Him.”

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

2019 ANNUAL APPEAL

Walk in Faith. Give in Joy.

This weekend is the 2019 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal at all parishes in the Cleveland Diocese.

This year’s appeal theme is Walk in Faith. Give in Joy. Your generous support will transform the lives of others, to offer dignity, possibilities and companionship to those who are most vulnerable. We will hear from three people, whose lives have been transformed in a video shown after Mass on Sunday morning, or it may be viewed at www.catholiccommunity.org/videos.

As in the past, we will have an in-pew commitment process at all Masses on February 9-10. All who have not received the mailing at home from Bishop Perez, or those who have not had a chance to respond to it, will be asked to consider making a generous pledge to support the ministries and services provided by Catholic Charities.

For more information about the Appeal and how your gifts will be used to help others, visit catholiccommunity.org/2019Appeal or contact Karen Joyce at 216-696-6525, ext. 1910 or kjoyce@catholiccommunity.org.
