My Dear Parish Family,

In a city like Cleveland where we take our sports so seriously and where the championships are so few and far between, we are enwrapped by any opportunity to celebrate, particularly with a parade. Recall the celebration when the Cavaliers finally won the championship or the inane plans to “celebrate” the 0-16 season of the Browns. Fair-weather fans as well as diehards all wanted to be part of the celebration.

On this Palm (Passion) Sunday, we hear of the procession of Jesus into Jerusalem and from all accounts it looks and sounds like a celebration of victory. This wonder-worker Jesus who has a small, close group of followers has finally “arrived” on the scene in the big city, Jerusalem. He has also acquired a large group of curious followers who are caught up in the frenzy of the excitement of the feast day and the energy of the crowd. Like sports fans that “jump on the bandwagon,” they cry out enthusiastically, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

This frenzied crowd covers His path with their cloaks and, from other Gospel accounts of this event, we know they cut palm branches and waved them wildly. These are all fitting tribute for a conquering king or a battlefield hero. It is also odd that Jesus, who so often required silence of those He cured would now tolerate so public of a display hailing Him as King!

The crowd thinks that Jesus has already won the victory and are now ready to celebrate. The truth is that the real victory of His passion, death and resurrection still lie ahead. It is as if, the Cleveland Browns had a Super Bowl parade before the playoffs began! (I have no doubt there would be fans attending such an event). Jesus’ glory, His hour is about to come.

It is time for the full disclosure of His true identity even if it angers the leaders of the Jewish people, even if He is hailed by the uniformed throng. In fact, the moment is so ripe with anticipation that Jesus tells the complaining Pharisees, “I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out”

The week that changed humanity’s eternal destiny is about to begin. Are you prepared?

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Beginning Divine Mercy Sunday (April 28, the Sunday after Easter), Bishop Nelson J. Perez has asked all parishes in the Diocese of Cleveland to change our Communion Rite posture to reflect the original policy, first established in 2003. We will remain standing after the Lamb of God, throughout the singing of the Communion Hymn, until the end of the distribution of Holy Communion. Once the last person has received Holy Communion and the Communion Hymn ends, we may kneel or sit for private prayer. A letter from the Bishop is forthcoming and more information, including documentation, may be found on the Office for Worship website: www.dioceseofcleveland.org/worship.

Easter Vigil — Help Needed for the Reception
Each Easter Vigil, the newest members of Holy Rosary from the RCIA preparation process are fully initiated into the Catholic faith. As a parish, we welcome those baptized, confirmed and receiving Holy Communion for the first time with a reception in the church hall following the Easter Vigil Mass.

Volunteers are needed to assist with the reception by providing bakery, desserts and finger foods
Items may be dropped off at the Parish Office on Saturday, April 20th, between 9:00-4:00 p.m. (or on Friday). Thank you and we invite you to attend the Easter Vigil Mass at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 20th.

Saint Anthony Novena – Tuesday Mass time at 7:00 p.m.

The Novena to St. Anthony begins this Tuesday, April 16th at 7:00 p.m. and continues every Tuesday evening through June 11, 2019. The Saint Anthony Novena will precede the weekday Liturgy which begins at 7:00 p.m. Please note that there is NOT a 12:15 p.m. Mass on Tuesdays during the Novena which continues every Tuesday through June 11, 2019.

Novena to Divine Mercy and Divine Mercy Sunday

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday and concludes on Divine Mercy Sunday – April 28th.

Through St. Faustina, our blessed Lord requested that the Sunday after Easter be officially established as the Feast of Mercy: “On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy” (Diary of St. Faustina, 699). The Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist are special fountains of mercy which should be received as a condition for obtaining His promise for the Feast of Mercy. Whoever will recite the Chaplet “will receive great mercy at the hour of death...When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior...Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy. Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will.”

(Diary of St. Faustina, 687, 1541, 1731)

Novena booklets and prayer cards are available in the back of the Church.

Culture of Life Ministry, An Invitation to Spiritually Adopt a Child

Please spiritually adopt an unborn baby. Every day, abortion ends the life of thousands of babies. Prayer is the best and most effective weapon – prayer cards are available in the back of church by the children’s room. We invite you to pray every day for nine months to save a baby’s life, concluding on Christmas, December 25. You may prayerfully discern a name for the child and write it in the book located near the prayer cards promising to pray for that child and the parents for the next nine months. Also, the Holy Rosary’s Culture of Life Ministry will host a baby shower later this year supporting local pregnant women and newborn babies in need. Thank you.

Month 1: Thank you for praying for me. I am one month old now. I have a heart pumping my blood and a backbone. I am very, very tiny and I appreciate your prayers.

Lenten Work of Mercy – Collection Ends Today

Saint Augustine Manor cares for the elderly poor at their facility on Detroit Road on the near west side. Holy Rosary’s Culture of Life committee is collecting donations for during Lent in the bins located near the church exits. The collection concludes on April 14. If you prefer to make a monetary donation, please place a check payable to St. Augustine Health Ministries in an envelope marked St. Augustine Manor in the collection basket or give it to an usher or drop off at the Parish Office. Do not leave monetary gifts in the donation bins. Thank you!

Let us Enter into this, the Holiest of All Weeks

This week, in order to help our students embrace the spirit of Holy Week, at 5:00 p.m. each day, Monday-Wednesday, in the Chapel at the Spiritual Life Center, Steve will be leading us in a different style of prayer. Keep an eye on your email or our groupme for more information.

We encourage you also to take advantage of the many ways our parish is celebrating Holy Week, particularly by participating in the Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday Liturgies.

Events this Week:

- Monday, April 15, 6:00 p.m.: Labre Run – If you’d like to join some of your fellow students in providing meals and company to those experiencing homelessness in the places they reside, contact Bridget Croniger at bkc35@case.edu, and she’ll let you know how you can help.

- Tuesday, April 16, 8:00 p.m. – Parish Center: Graduate and Professional Student Bible Study – Our Graduate Student Bible Study is up and running again! If you’re interested in taking part in the study or learning more about what our graduate student community does and who is in it, feel free to send an email to Julia O’Brien (jao47@case.edu) or Anna O’Connell (amo38@case.edu).

- Wednesday, April 17, 5:00 p.m. at the Spiritual Life Center: Vespers – As always, we will join together in the Spiritual Life Center on Wednesday to pray Evening Prayer together. If you’ve never experienced this style of prayer, there is not a better week of the year to try it!

- Thursday, April 18, 6:15 p.m.: Holy Thursday Dinner – As the Church enters into the Paschal Triduum, beginning with the Mass of the Lord’s Supper Thursday at 7:30 p.m., we will not be having a Newman Night talk this day. However, we will still gather together for a meal at 6:15, which will give us plenty of time to eat and still honor our Eucharistic fast!

Crsricebowl.org

Thank you for your generosity to the annual Rice Bowl project. Please return your rice bowl donations to the ushers. For more information on how your contributions benefit others, see: www.crsricebowl.org.

First Holy Communion at Holy Rosary

First Holy Communion will be celebrated on Sunday, April 28th during the 8:30 a.m. Mass with a reception to follow. All are welcome to attend. We ask you to please keep those preparing to receive First Communion in your prayers.

Good Friday – Fast and Abstinence

Note that all Fridays of Lent, including Good Friday, are days of abstinence from meat for those age 14 years and older. Good Friday, April 19th, is also a day of fasting for those ages 18 to 59.
