Reflection on Today’s Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus said:

My sheep hear my voice;
I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand.
My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.

Today’s Gospel reveals an intimate love of Christ for all of us from the beginning of time. Metaphorically, we are His sheep, and indeed we are gifted with eternal life. How wonderful this is!

Humanity longs to be loved. Humanity longs to be taken care of. We are! Jesus Christ, who is both human and divine – fully human (experiencing all of the joys and sorrows of a human life) and fully divine (loving all of humanity, each individual, as our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier) assures us of His generous love.

We are invited into an intimate relationship with Christ, the Good Shepherd, by belonging to the flock. Our salvation is freely given through Christ’s ultimate sacrifice on the Cross and the Resurrection continues to be celebrated in a special way during the liturgical Easter season.

We are called to “follow” which requires consciously entering into a personal relationship with Him so that the most familiar sound in our heart and mind is the voice of Christ. This relationship is entered into each and every day of our lives here on earth and continues into eternity.

The image of a shepherd caring for his flock of sheep is a rich image indeed. A shepherd protects the sheep from all danger and provides for their basic needs. Likewise, Christ feeds us spiritually through the Eucharist and continually cares for our every need and we lovingly follow Him. We do this through prayer, the Sacraments, service to others, by following the commandments joyfully because we know that is the very best way to live! We are cradled in the arms of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit – our Trinitarian God whose very nature shows us the critical importance of relationship. We are called to follow the Good Shepherd, to daily enter into a relationship of love with our God, who promises eternal life.

That is GOOD NEWS – to which we joyfully respond “Alleluia.”

Baby Bottle Distribution – Change for Life!

We invite each family to take home a baby bottle next weekend as they leave Mass on Mother’s Day weekend, May 11-12, to collect loose change to benefit Womankind. The donations are used to support pregnant women and new mothers in need – in our local area. Womankind is a Cleveland-based nonprofit for Clevelanders that supports women to continue pregnancies not covered by insurance plans, and offers prenatal care, counseling and other support services to women and babies in need. Please help Womankind and remember to return your baby bottle and donations on Father’s Day weekend, June 15-16. Thank you!

Culture of Life Ministry, An Invitation to Spiritually Adopt a Child

Pray daily for nine months to save a baby’s life from abortion, concluding on Christmas, December 25 – prayer cards are available in the back of church by the children’s room. You may prayerfully discern a name for the child and write it in the book located near the prayer cards promising to pray for that child and the parents. Also, the Holy Rosary’s Culture of Life Ministry will host a baby shower later this year supporting local pregnant women and newborn babies in need. Watch the bulletin this fall for more details. Thank you.

Month 2

Keep praying for me! I am two months old now and about 2 inches long. Look! You can see my eyes, nose and mouth. I will use them to experience God’s world after I am born.

Ozanam Center in East Cleveland – Volunteers and Donations are Needed:

Holy Rosary is one of fifteen local parishes supporting the Ozanam Center, located on the campus of Saint Philomena Church on Euclid Avenue in East Cleveland. The center provides food and clothing to local clients. Each Saturday, volunteers assigned from the different parishes help pack and distribute groceries, sort and distribute clothing as well as provide hospitality assistance and registration for the clients. The next date Holy Rosary will provide volunteers is Saturday, June 8th from 9:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. If interested in volunteering, call Deacon Bruce at 216-421-2995.
