WEDDING BANNS

III Monica Karboski & Anthony Davidson
II Julianna Fatica & Jeff Jasinski
II Mary Catherine Powers & Michael McKee
My Dear Parish Family,

In this week’s readings from the Acts of the Apostles, we hear the next installment of the story of the growing Church. Since last week’s episode, St. Paul has made a whirlwind tour of the Gentile cities in the region. Today’s reading begins after he has established a faith community in Lystra but the leaders from Antioch arrive and expel him by stoning him until he was presumed dead. After he recovers he returns to the city to show himself alive and then moves on. Once in the next town, he tells all the faithful, “It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God.” Given all he has already endured; this is quite an understatement! This statement is not only a reference to St. Paul’s history but it is also prophetic. He is telling them (and you and me) that entry into the Kingdom comes with a price and that price is suffering for the Kingdom. If you think about it, it simply makes sense.

Jesus told us that if the world did not spare the Master persecution, it certainly will not spare His disciples. Today’s Gospel is part of Jesus’ farewell discourse prior to what He calls “the time to be glorified.” This is His crucifixion, the time where He will show His love for the Father by His obedience to the Father’s will and the depth of His love for us. This is what is at the heart of the establishment of the Kingdom of God – suffering for the sake of love. It is no wonder we, those who desire to enter the Kingdom, will suffer as well.

On the threshold of His death, Jesus gives us a new, final command. When a person is about to die, their final request carries an extra gravity or force. Jesus’ final command is “love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” Loving one another is hard enough without trying to love “as Jesus has loved us.” Perhaps the way to feel the full impact of this final request is pray for one other as we gaze at the crucifix.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance
2019-2020 School Year

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and non-parishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.
