Reflection on Today’s Gospel:

Jesus said to his disciples: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

John 14:23

Last Sunday, we heard of a new commandment from Jesus to love one another. This is the identifying characteristic of how one can be identified as a disciple of Jesus – by having love for one another. It sounds so very easy, doesn’t it? This week’s Gospel continues the conversation taking place at the Last Supper, in which Jesus now tells his disciples that if they love Him, they will keep His Word, and then God the Father will love us and ultimately the Triune God will dwell within those who love.

To put this into perspective, we can imagine that being a disciple means we have to love like Christ loves. This means our eternal life with God hinges upon how well we love those individuals who daily challenge us! And conversely, we must realize that it may be we who provide the greatest challenge to someone else! With that in mind, Christ’s command is not seeming so easy! Yet, it’s quite clear what the goal is: love one another, and if we love Jesus we keep his word, which means to love one another! This love is not a mere feeling or emotion; rather, it is a response to both Christ’s invitation and command.

The English language creates a challenge because the word “love” has many applications: i.e. I love fried chicken, I love my car, I love my child. The Aramaic and Greek in which this Gospel was first written and then translated into uses multiple words to describe “love.” The Greek word eros, describing love between a man and woman, is used only twice in the Bible! (in the Greek Old Testament). John’s Gospel uses the word philia, describing a love for one’s friend; but the most often used word for love in the New Testament is agape, which is rarely used in the Greek. Thus, Sacred Scripture introduces agape as a new kind of love—setting it apart from the more commonly used type of love. “The tendency to avoid the word eros, together with the new vision of love expressed through the word agape, clearly point to something new and distinct about the Christian understanding of love.” (from Deus Caritas Est, God is Love, ¶3)

Deus Caritas Est is an encyclical letter written by Benedict XVI in 2005 addressed to “the bishops, priests and deacons, men and women religious and all the lay faithful” on Christian love. Therefore, if you are seeking to understand your faith better, and to truly comprehend this command to love one another, then consider accepting the invitation from Pope Emeritus Benedict and read this letter about the unique characteristics of true Christian love. It’s available for free download to your computer or smartphone from FORMED under the Reading/nonfiction tab (or via the Search box). Visit: https://holy-rosary.formed.org to register.

Holy Rosary Tuition Assistance 2019-2020 School Year

The Diocese of Cleveland encourages parishes who do not operate a Catholic School to provide assistance for children whose families are registered at that parish to attend a Catholic elementary school. This program subsidizes an amount sufficient to cover the difference between parishioner and non-parishioner tuition rates at area Catholic grade schools and allows families to remain active parishioners of their home parish. Any parish family with children enrolled in Kindergarten through 8th grade at a Catholic elementary school and who is not currently participating in the parish tuition assistance program is invited to contact Father Joe Previte at (216) 421-2995 regarding specific details.
