★ Rest in Peace ★
Maria Alvares
My Dear Parish Family,

On this 15th Sunday of Ordinary Time in the Luke cycle, we will hear the parable of the Good Samaritan. I would, however, like to reflect on St. Paul’s letter to the Colossians that reveal to us many awesome truths about the person of Christ. This discipline, the study of the person of Christ is called Christology. These six verses contain enough material for meditation to keep you occupied for some time. Every instance of “He” refers specifically to Jesus.

“He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation.” 1 Jesus shows us (present tense) what the invisible God we worship looks like. Before all creation got started, Jesus was already present. “for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible.” 2 This is to say that everything in the universe, those that exist now, those that no longer exist and those that have not yet taken shape have been created in Jesus. This includes those things without substance or matter like good and evil angels, “all things were created through him and for him.” 3 Not only was Jesus 100% united with the Father when all things came to be but all creation was formed for Him, for His purpose.

“He is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent.” 4 Jesus was present before there was a “place” to reference in the universe. This is what pre-eminent means. What’s more, Jesus is the first, and only to return from the realm of the dead under His own power. He is first there, too. That is why He is the Lord of the living and dead.

“For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.” 5 In Jesus, the fullness, that is 100%, not 50 or 75 or 99.9% but the fullness of the Divine Nature resides. This is the truth that the Gnostic and the Arian heretics attempted to deny. Anyone who claims that Jesus was nothing more than just one among many great moral teachers in history also denies this truth. Without this truth about the Divine Nature of Jesus, He would not be able to “reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.” 6 If in Jesus is not “the fullness of God” then His offering of reconciliation was insufficient and we are no closer to reconciliation to the Father than our material father Adam.

But He is Jesus is He and we have been redeemed through the blood of His cross.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Bruce
